- (a) in the interests of the health, welfare or safety of the prisoner or any other person; or
- (b) to prevent an escape from legal custody or the doing of any act prejudicial to the safe keeping of persons in legal custody.

(2) The Governor, if minded to impose special security measures on a prisoner (other than an untried prisoner), shall—

- (a) provide the prisoner with a written notice stating—

- (b) the procedure referred to at paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) is commenced within 48 hours of the provisional imposition of the special security measures.

 - (i) a copy of any document to which the Governor has had regard; and
 - (ii) a summary of any other information of which the Governor was aware and to which he or she has had regard, in considering the matter.

(3) If the Governor is of the opinion that any document or other information of which the Governor was aware and to which he or she has had regard in considering the matter would, if disclosed to the prisoner, be likely to be damaging on any ground mentioned in rule 18(3), the Governor shall not be obliged to provide the prisoner with a copy of that document or a summary of that other information but shall inform the prisoner in the notice under paragraph (2), but only insofar as is practicable without prejudicing the purposes for which that document or other information is not disclosed, of the gist of that document or information.

(4) In a case to which paragraph (2) applies, the Governor shall—

108.—(1) This rule applies where an officer, acting under the powers conferred by section 41C of the Act (testing of prisoners for alcohol), requires a prisoner to provide a sample for the purpose of ascertaining whether a prisoner has any alcoholic liquor in their body.

(2) In this rule “sample” means a sample of breath or any other description of sample specified in the authorisation by the Governor for the purposes of section 41C.

(3) When requiring a prisoner to provide a sample, an officer shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, inform the prisoner—

- (a) of the requirement to provide a sample in accordance with section 41C of the Act; and
- (b) that a refusal to provide a sample may lead to disciplinary proceedings being brought against the prisoner.

(4) An officer shall require a prisoner to provide a fresh sample, free from any adulteration.

(5) An officer requiring a sample shall make such arrangements and give the prisoner such instructions for its provision as may be reasonably necessary in order to prevent or detect its adulteration or falsification.

(6) A prisoner who is required to provide a sample may be kept apart from other prisoners for a period not exceeding 1 hour to enable arrangements to be made for provision of the sample.

⁽⁷⁹⁾ Section 41B was inserted by the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994, section 151(2).

(7) A prisoner who is unable to provide a sample of urine (if by virtue of an authorisation an officer is empowered to require such a sample) when required to do so may be kept apart from other prisoners until the required sample has been provided, save that a prisoner may not be kept apart under this paragraph for a period of more than 5 hours.

(8) A prisoner required to provide a sample of urine shall be afforded such degree of privacy for the purposes of providing the sample as may be compatible with the need to prevent or detect any adulteration or falsification of the sample; in particular a prisoner shall not be required to provide such a sample in the sight of a person of the opposite sex.

Searching of prisoners' property and cells

109.—(1) Any item of property belonging to a prisoner may be searched by an officer at any time.

(2) The room or cell of every prisoner, including any item of property kept in it, shall be searched at such times as the Governor considers necessary.

Custody outside prison

110.—(1) A prisoner required to be taken in legal custody anywhere outside a prison shall be kept in the custody or under the control of an officer or a constable.

(2) A prisoner being taken to or from a prison shall be—

- (a) exposed to public view as little as possible; and
- (b) protected so far as reasonably practicable from insult, curiosity and publicity in any form.

(3) A prisoner who is allowed or is required to be present at any court, shall wear their own clothing or ordinary civilian clothing provided by the Governor.

Special escorted leave

111.—(1) In this rule, “special escorted leave” means leave of absence from the prison of a prisoner for the purpose of being escorted to their home or other approved place for a visit not exceeding 2 hours, excluding travelling time.

(2) On the application of an eligible prisoner, the Governor may grant special escorted leave if he or she of the opinion that, having regard to the relevant criteria applicable to the granting of such leave and to any operational requirements, it is appropriate to do so.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, a prisoner is an eligible prisoner if at the time of the application the prisoner—

- (a) is confined in a prison, or a category of prison, or a particular part of a prison, to which this rule applies;
- (b) is a life prisoner or is serving a sentence for a term of more than one year;
- (c) is and has been for at least 3 months assigned low supervision level; and
- (d) if serving a sentence for a term of more than one year, has served at least one third of his or her sentence.

(4) For the purposes of special escorted leave in terms of this rule, the Scottish Ministers may specify in a direction—

- (a) the prisons, categories of prisons, or parts of prisons to which this rule applies;
- (b) the manner in which the Governor shall consider an application for special escorted leave;
- (c) the criteria about which the Governor must be satisfied before he or she may grant special escorted leave;

- (d) the conditions which may be imposed in relation to any approval of such an application; and
- (e) the timing and duration of special escorted leave and the frequency with which it may be granted to an eligible prisoner.

Escorted day absence

112.—(1) In this rule, “escorted day absence” means leave of absence granted to a prisoner, under escort from the prison, for a period not exceeding 1 day, to enable the prisoner—

- (a) to visit a near relative who it appears to the Governor is dangerously ill;
- (b) to attend the funeral of a near relative; or
- (c) to attend at any place for any other reason where the Governor is of the view there are exceptional circumstances.

(2) On the written application of a prisoner, the Governor may grant, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this rule and any operational requirements, escorted day absence to the prisoner if satisfied that the purpose of the application is genuine and appropriate.

(3) Where the Governor grants escorted day absence, the prisoner concerned shall be escorted by an officer or officers throughout the period of absence from the prison.

(4) For the purposes of escorted day absence in terms of this rule, the Scottish Ministers may specify in a direction—

- (a) the criteria about which the Governor must be satisfied before granting leave of absence for the purpose specified in paragraph (1)(a);
- (b) the persons who are to be treated as near relatives of the prisoner; and
- (c) the proceedings, services or ceremonies which a prisoner may attend for the purpose specified in paragraph (1)(b).

PART 11

DISCIPLINE

Conduct constituting a breach of discipline

113. In this part, “breach of discipline” shall be interpreted in accordance with Schedule 1 to these Rules.

Reports of breaches of discipline and removal from association

114.—(1) Every suspected breach of discipline shall be reported forthwith in writing to the Governor by the officer to whose notice it has come.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), where any officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a prisoner has committed a breach of discipline the officer may, if considering it appropriate to do so, remove the prisoner from association with other prisoners in general pending the making of a report in terms of paragraph (1) and the adjudication of the charge of breach of discipline.

(3) A prisoner shall not be subject to such removal for a period in excess of 72 hours from the time of the removal except where there are exceptional circumstances and, on the application of the Governor, the written authority of the Scottish Ministers has been obtained prior to the expiry of the 72 hour period.

(4) An authority granted by the Scottish Ministers under paragraph (3) shall—

- (a) have effect for a period of one month commencing from the expiry of the said period of 72 hours but the Scottish Ministers may, on any subsequent application of the Governor, renew the authority for further periods of one month commencing from the expiry of the previous authority; and
- (b) in any case cease to have effect when the charge has been adjudicated.

(5) Where a prisoner has been removed from association under this rule, a medical officer shall visit that prisoner as soon as practicable and thereafter as often as is necessary but at least once in every 7 days.

Disciplinary charges

115.—(1) Where a prisoner is to be charged with a breach of discipline, the charge shall be brought as soon as possible and in any event, save in exceptional circumstances, within 48 hours of the discovery of the act or omission giving rise to the charge.

(2) Every charge of a breach of discipline shall be brought by serving a written notice of the charge on the prisoner and any such notice shall be served no later than 2 hours before the time when it is to be inquired into by the Governor.

(3) Where an untried prisoner is reported for a suspected breach of discipline on the date before the prisoner's trial is due to commence, or on the day of (or any day during) the trial, the officer concerned may delay bringing a charge in accordance with the foregoing provisions until the relevant criminal proceedings are concluded and, where the prisoner is sentenced to imprisonment, the officer may bring the charge no later than 48 hours after the time at which sentence is passed.

Inquiry into disciplinary charges

116.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4), every charge of breach of discipline shall be inquired into by the Governor not later, save in exceptional circumstances, than the next day after it is brought or, where the next day is a Sunday or a public holiday, the day after that Sunday or public holiday.

(2) The Governor shall be satisfied before commencing an inquiry into any charge that the prisoner concerned has had sufficient time to prepare his or her case.

(3) The Governor shall adjourn an inquiry, for such period of time as may be reasonably necessary, if satisfied that the prisoner requires further time to prepare or that there exist other reasonable grounds for an adjournment.

(4) Every prisoner against whom a charge is brought shall be given a full opportunity of—

- (a) hearing the allegations made;
- (b) presenting his or her own case and, subject to paragraph (5), calling witnesses; and
- (c) subject to rule 117(3), cross-examining any other witnesses.

(5) The Governor may refuse to allow a prisoner to call any witness if, having discussed the matter with the prisoner, he or she is reasonably satisfied that the evidence which the witness is likely to give will be of no relevance or value in determining whether the charge is proven.

(6) A prisoner may choose to be seated or may stand during the inquiry.

(7) The Governor may, on the application of a prisoner, permit the prisoner to be represented at the inquiry by a person who is entitled to practise in any part of the United Kingdom as a solicitor, an advocate or a barrister where in exceptional circumstances the Governor considers such representation is necessary or desirable.

(8) Where, following an adjournment under paragraph (3), the person who made the adjournment is unable to proceed at the time fixed for the inquiry to recommence, another person (being, as the case may be, the Governor-in-charge, the Deputy Governor, an authorised unit manager or, if none of those is present for the time being in the prison, the most senior officer who is present in the prison at that time) may continue to inquire into the matter.

(9) Paragraph (8) does not apply in any inquiry where, at the time of the adjournment under paragraph (3), evidence had been led, in which case another person as mentioned in paragraph (8) may desert the charge but authorise any officer to bring a new charge in relation to the same suspected breach of discipline.

Adjudication of charges

117.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Governor shall be entitled to take into account any evidence, in whatever form, at the inquiry into any charge of breach of discipline.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Governor may only take into account the evidence of any person who has not given oral evidence at the inquiry if the prisoner concerned agrees.

(3) In any inquiry into a charge of a breach of discipline contrary to paragraph (v) or (x) of Schedule 1, the Governor may take into account written evidence of any person (other than an officer or employee) relating to an analysis of a sample required to be provided in accordance with rule 107 or 108 which was carried out by that person, without requiring the attendance of that person, if—

- (a) notwithstanding an objection by the prisoner, the prisoner has been afforded the opportunity to make representations why the person should give oral evidence; and
- (b) having heard the prisoner, the Governor is satisfied that it is appropriate to admit the evidence and that there is no sufficient reason why the person need give oral evidence.

(4) At the conclusion of an inquiry into any such charge, the Governor shall consider whether the charge has been proven beyond any reasonable doubt.

(5) If the Governor finds a prisoner guilty of a breach of discipline, the Governor shall afford the prisoner an opportunity to make a plea in mitigation before considering whether to impose a punishment in terms of rule 119.

(6) It shall be a defence for a prisoner charged with a breach of discipline contrary to paragraph (y) of Schedule 1 to show that—

- (a) the controlled drug had been, prior to its administration, lawfully in the prisoner's possession for the prisoner's use or was administered to the prisoner in the course of a lawful supply of the drug to the prisoner by another person;
- (b) the controlled drug was administered by or to the prisoner in circumstances in which the prisoner did not know and had no reason to suspect that such a drug was being administered; or
- (c) the controlled drug was administered by or to the prisoner under duress or to the prisoner without consent in circumstances where it was not reasonable for the prisoner to have resisted.

Breaches of discipline occurring before reception into prison

118.—(1) If a report is made under rule 114(1) by an officer in relation to a person liable to be detained in a young offenders institution who is moved from that institution to any prison, or a person detained in any prison who is moved to any other prison, and the suspected breach comes to the reporting officer's notice within 3 days (or 4 days if that period would include a Sunday or a public holiday) of the day on which the person is moved from the institution or prison concerned, the Governor of the prison to which the person is moved may, if there was insufficient time to investigate and adjudicate the matter at the institution or prison concerned, receive the report and deal with the matter as if it had occurred after reception of the person in that prison.

(2) If a report is made under rule 114(1) by an officer in relation to a person detained in a young offenders institution who is moved to a prison, or a person detained in any prison who is moved to any other prison, and the suspected breach related to a period during which the person was in the course of being moved, the Governor of the prison to which the person is moved shall receive the report and deal with the matter as if it had occurred after reception of the person in that prison.

(3) If, following reception on a transfer from another prison, a prisoner is charged with a breach of discipline contrary to paragraph (y) of Schedule 1 in circumstances where—

- (a) the controlled drug specified in the relevant charge may have been administered to the prisoner before reception in the prison; but
- (b) the prisoner was detained in a prison throughout the period during which the drug might have been administered, the Governor may deal with that matter in accordance with this Part of these Rules as if the controlled drug, which it is alleged was administered, had been administered whilst the prisoner was in the prison to which he or she has been transferred.

(4) Where—

- (a) a prisoner who provided a sample in accordance with rule 107 was at that time an untried prisoner;
- (b) the prisoner was detained in a prison throughout the period during which the drug might have been administered;
- (c) following an analysis of the sample there are grounds for believing that the prisoner was guilty of a breach of discipline contrary to paragraph (x) of Schedule 1; and
- (d) following the provision of the sample the prisoner is convicted and sentenced to imprisonment, the Governor of the prison to which the prisoner is committed following conviction may deal with the charge in accordance with this Part of these Rules irrespective of whether the controlled drug, which it is alleged was administered, had been administered whilst the prisoner was in the prison to which the prisoner has been committed.

Governor's punishments

119.—(1) A Governor, when finding a prisoner guilty of a breach of discipline, may impose one or more of the following punishments:—

- (a) a caution;
- (b) forfeiture of any privileges granted under the system of privileges applicable to a prisoner for a period not exceeding 14 days;
- (c) stoppage of or deduction from earnings for a period not exceeding 56 days and of an amount not exceeding one half of the prisoner's earnings in any week (or part thereof) falling within the period specified;
- (d) except in the case of a young prisoner, cellular confinement for a period not exceeding 3 days;
- (e) in the case of an untried prisoner guilty of escaping or attempting to escape, forfeiture of the entitlement to wear their own clothing under rule 25 for any period as may be specified;
- (f) in the case of an untried prisoner or a civil prisoner, forfeiture of any or all of the entitlements referred to in rules 48, 49 and 54 for any period as may be specified; or
- (g) forfeiture of the entitlement to withdraw money in terms of rule 53(3) for any period not exceeding 14 days.

(2) If a prisoner is found guilty of more than one breach of discipline arising out of an incident, punishments under this rule (except for cellular confinement imposed under paragraph (1)(d)) may be ordered to run consecutively.

(3) Where cellular confinement is imposed on a prisoner under paragraph (1)(d)–

- (a) the Governor shall inform a medical officer as soon as possible;
- (b) any entitlement of the prisoner in terms of these Rules shall not, by reason only of the imposition of such confinement, be affected except insofar as expressly provided in a direction made for the purposes of sub paragraph (c); and
- (c) the prisoner shall serve the period of confinement in accordance with the provisions of, and subject to any conditions imposed by, a direction made by the Scottish Ministers.

Suspended punishments

120.—(1) The power of the Governor to impose a punishment under rule 119(1) (other than a caution) includes power to direct that the punishment shall not take effect unless, during such period of the prisoner’s sentence as shall be specified in the direction (not being more than 6 months (or 3 months in the case of an untried prisoner) from the date of the direction), the prisoner commits another breach of discipline and a direction is given under paragraph (2).

(2) Where a prisoner is found guilty of a breach of discipline committed during the period specified in a direction by the Governor under paragraph (1) then the Governor dealing with that breach may–

- (a) direct that the suspended punishment shall take effect;
- (b) reduce the period or the amount of the suspended punishment and direct that it shall take effect as so reduced;
- (c) vary the original direction by substituting for the period specified a period expiring not later than six months from the date of variation; or
- (d) give no direction with respect to the suspended punishment.

PART 12

121. Where a prisoner makes a request to speak to–

123.—(1) A prisoner who desires to make a complaint concerning any matter, other than a matter to which rules 121, 122, 127, 128, 129 and 130 apply, may do so subject to and in accordance with the following provisions of this rule.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), such a complaint—

(a) may be made orally or in writing; but

(b) shall be made by the prisoner to the residential officer in the first instance.

(4) If a prisoner requires assistance with the making of the written complaint, an officer appointed by the Governor for the purpose shall provide such assistance as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), the residential officer shall give a reply to the prisoner within 24 hours of receiving the complaint and shall give a written reply to any complaint which was made in writing.

(6) If the residential officer is unable to reply within the period specified in paragraph (5), that officer shall inform the prisoner within that period of the timescale within which the reply will be given and shall thereafter give a written reply as soon as reasonably practicable.

(7) This rule does not affect any right of a prisoner to make any complaint at any time to any person or body other than the Scottish Ministers and any officer of the prison.

Referral of complaints to the internal complaints committee

125.—(1) If a prisoner is dissatisfied with the reply given in relation to a complaint by the residential unit manager in terms of rule 124(3) or (4), the prisoner may make a written referral of the complaint to the internal complaints committee (“the committee”) consisting of not fewer than 3 officers or employees.

(2) If the prisoner requires assistance with the making of the written complaint, an officer appointed by the Governor for the purpose shall provide such assistance as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

the prisoner shall give written notice of that intention and the reasons for considering this to be necessary.

(6) The officer acting as chairman of the committee may refuse to allow a prisoner to call a particular witness if, having discussed the matter with the prisoner, he or she reasonably satisfied that the evidence which the witness is likely to give will be of no relevance or value in considering the complaint and, in that event, the officer shall inform the prisoner concerned prior to the hearing.

- (7) Subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), at the conclusion of the inquiry, the committee shall—
- (a) consider and decide upon such recommendations as it sees fit in relation to the complaint;

(2) If the prisoner requires assistance with the making of the written complaint, an officer appointed by the Governor for the purpose shall provide such assistance as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

(3) The Governor shall consider the complaint within 7 days of the date on which it is referred except where it is not reasonably practicable to do so.

- (4) The Governor may, at the request of the prisoner, discuss the complaint with the prisoner.
- (5) If the Governor refuses a request by a prisoner to discuss the complaint, the Governor shall inform the prisoner of the reasons for that refusal and shall record that decision in writing.
- (6) After considering the referral, the Governor may—
 - (a) reject the complaint; or
 - (b) substitute or amend any recommendation made by the internal complaints committee in terms of rule 125(7) or make any other recommendation as he or she considers appropriate and give effect to the recommendations as substituted or amended.
- (7) The Governor shall inform the prisoner of the decision in writing.

Complaints to the Governor in relation to confidential matters

127.—(1) Notwithstanding rules 123 to 126, a prisoner who desires to make a complaint to the Governor concerning any confidential matter which is of an exceptionally sensitive or serious nature may do so in writing subject to and in accordance with the following provisions of this rule.

(2) The prisoner shall, if wishing to make such a complaint, give a sealed envelope containing the written complaint to the residential officer, who shall convey the complaint without delay to the Governor.

(3) The Governor if of the opinion that the complaint is not of an exceptionally sensitive or serious nature, shall inform the prisoner without delay that the complaint must be made in accordance with rule 123 and shall return the written complaint in a sealed envelope.

(4) Subject to paragraph (3), the Governor shall consider the complaint and inform the prisoner of his or her decision within 7 days of the date on which the complaint was made except where it is not reasonably practicable to do so.

- (b) giving that sealed envelope to the residential officer, who shall convey the complaint without delay to the medical officer to whom it is addressed.

(3) As soon as reasonably practicable after receiving a complaint in terms of paragraph (2), the medical officer to whom it is made shall inform the Governor in writing that a complaint has been received and thereafter confirm whether the complaint has been satisfactorily resolved.

(4) If a prisoner requires assistance with the making of a complaint, an officer appointed by the Governor for the purpose shall provide such assistance as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

(5) A medical officer who receives a complaint in accordance with this rule shall consider the complaint and reply to the prisoner within 7 days of the date on which the complaint was made except where it is not reasonably practicable to do so.

(6) A prisoner may refer the complaint concerning any aspect of the care provided by any medical officer of the prison to the Scottish Ministers if dissatisfied with the reply given by the medical officer in terms of paragraph (5), but the Scottish Ministers shall be under no obligation to consider the complaint unless it has been so referred.

(7) The Scottish Ministers shall give a written decision within 28 days of the date on which the complaint has been referred to them except where it is not reasonably practicable for them to do so.

(8) The Scottish Ministers shall inform the prisoner, the Governor and the medical officer of their decision; and the Governor and the medical officer shall each take any such action as they are required to take to give effect to any instruction which the Scottish Ministers make in relation to the complaint.

Requests, complaints and representations to the Scottish Ministers in relation to certain matters

130.—(1) A prisoner who is found guilty of any breach of discipline may, where any officer other than the Governor adjudicated the charge, appeal in writing to the internal complaints committee not later than 14 days after the date on which the charge was adjudicated—

- (a) against such a finding of guilt and any punishment imposed in respect of the breach; or
- (b) in the case of any punishment imposed under rule 119(1), against the punishment only.

(2) An appeal under paragraph (1) shall be dealt with as if it were a complaint made under rule 125 and the Governor shall, if recommended to do so by the internal complaints committee,—

- (a) quash any finding of guilt; or
- (b) remit or mitigate any punishment (other than a punishment imposed under sub paragraph (b), (d), (f) or (h) of rule 119(1) where the period for which the punishment was imposed has expired by the date of the decision of the appeal).

Direction with respect to complaints procedures

Savings and transitional provisions for the 1994 Rules

- (b) there remains in force any authority, direction order or permission given;
- (c) any record or minute requires to be made in respect of any matter;
- (d) any complaint made requires to be or is being investigated; or
- (e) any inquiry or investigation requires to be or is being carried out, under any provision of the 1994 Rules, then, insofar as any matter specified in heads (a) to (e) above could be granted, given, made, investigated or carried out under a corresponding provision of these Rules, that matter shall be treated as if it had been granted, made or given, or as if it had to be made, investigated, or carried out, under the corresponding provision of these Rules.

(2) Any award of a punishment under any one or more of sub paragraphs (a) to (d) and (g) to (i) of rule 100(1) of the 1994 Rules which was made in respect of a prisoner prior to the date of coming into force of these Rules shall be deemed to have effect as if awarded under rule 119 of these Rules.

(3) Where, at the date of coming into force of these Rules, any report of an offence against discipline which was made in terms of rule 96 of the 1994 Rules has not been adjudicated, the report shall be deemed not to have been made, but without prejudice to the right of an officer, if appropriate, to make a report in terms of rule 114(1) of these Rules.

(4) The Scottish Prison Service Code of Discipline 1993 made by the Secretary of State on 24th October 1992 shall continue to apply as if it had been approved under rule 155 of these Rules.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules replace the Prisons and Young Offenders Institutions (Scotland) Rules 1994 as amended and introduce a new rule (31) about smoking in prisons and a new rule (142) about temporary release for eligible prisoners to maintain family and community links. In addition the following amendments have been made:

Rule 39 reflects the arrangements now in place following the introduction of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 relating to the transfer to hospital of a prisoner, for the assessment and treatment for mental disorder.

Rule 102(4)(a) now allows the visual examination (without the use of force or any instruments) of a visitor's open mouth by an officer of either gender;

Rule 106(3)(a) now allows the visual examination (without the use of force or instruments) of a prisoner's open mouth by an officer of either gender;

The rules (and parts of rules) relating to the awarding of additional days and the forfeiture of remission by Governor's as a punishment for a breach of discipline have been removed from these (2006) Rules.

These Rules have been drafted in gender neutral terms. Consequently there have been a number of textual changes from the 1994 Rules.

Part 1 of the Rules (rules 1 to 7) makes provision for citation, commencement, application and interpretation. It also provides for certain duties of the Governor in relation to elimination of discrimination and the making available of a copy of the Rules and of any directions to officers and prisoners. Rule 2 provides that the Rules apply to young offenders institutions and to young offenders as they apply to prisons and prisoners. Rule 3 makes provision for the application of the rules to contracted out prisons.

Part 2 (rules 8 to 15) deals with matters relating to reception of prisoners, prisoner records, classification of prisoners and location of prisoners within prisons. In relation to reception, there are provisions as to the manner in which a prisoner is to be dealt with including the information the prisoner must be given (rules 9 to 11). Rule 12 deals with registration and records of prisoners. Rule 13 relates to classification and rule 14 deals with the allocation of prisoners within prisons.

Part 3 (rules 16 to 21) relate to procedures for assigning supervision levels. Separate provision is made for imposition of special security measures. Part 4 (rules 22 to 30) regulates matters affecting the physical and personal environment in which prisoners are confined.

Part 4 (Rules 22 to 24) specify conditions relating to cellular accommodation. Rules 25 to 28 make provision for requirements in relation to clothing. Subject to certain conditions, untried prisoners are allowed to wear their own clothes except where the provisions of rule 25(2) apply. Rule 26 specifies the circumstances in which any prisoner other than an untried prisoner may wear their own clothing. Rules 29 and 30 set out requirements in relation to the provision of food and prisoners' hygiene.

Part 5 (rules 31 to 42) makes provision in relation to the health and welfare of prisoners. The duties of medical officers are specified in rules 33, 34 to 37, 38 to 40. Rule 41 requires the governor to provide assistance and facilities to assist prisoners to maintain relationships with family, friends and agencies who may offer them assistance. Special provision is made for visits to untried and civil prisoners by their own doctors and dentists (rule 42).

Part 6 (rules 43 to 47) makes provision in relation to religious practice by a prisoner. Rule 44 enables the Chaplain, any prison minister appointed under section 9(1) of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1989, and any other minister ("visiting minister") allowed to visit prisoners in terms of section 9(3) of the Act to visit prisoners and conduct religious services or meetings for prisoners. Rule 45 requires the Governor to make arrangements for visits by visiting ministers. Rule 46 permits prisoners to attend services or meetings of their religious denomination and makes provision in relation to visits by the Chaplain or other minister.

Part 7 (rules 48 to 54) makes provision for privileges and the regulation of property belonging to prisoners which is received or kept at the prison. Rule 49 requires governors to establish a system of privileges in the prison. Such a system shall not affect any entitlement of a prisoner as specified in the rules and any such entitlement is not to be regarded as a privilege for the purposes of disciplinary punishment which may provide for forfeiture of privileges. The handling of prisoners' property in general and money in particular is dealt with in rules 50 to 54.

Part 8 (rules 55 to 79) deals with various matters relating to arrangements enabling prisoners to communicate with persons outwith the prison. Correspondence is dealt with in rules 56 to 61. Special provisions relating to the correspondence between prisoners and courts and legal advisers are contained in rules 57 and 58. Other correspondence is regulated by rules 56 and 59 to 61. Every prisoner is entitled to send at least one letter every week at the expense of the Scottish Ministers. Entitlement of prisoners to make telephone calls from the prison is regulated by rule 62 and any direction which may be made for the purposes of that rule. Visits to prisoners are provided for in rules 63 to 78. Rule 63 specifies the minimum entitlement to visits for prisoners (rule 64 making similar provision for untried and civil prisoners). Rule 65 enables certain prisoners to carry forward their unused visiting allowance where they are moved to another prison. Rules 66 to 69 make special provision in relation to visits by legal advisers, procurators fiscal, police constables, and representatives of diplomatic services and national or international authorities or organisations. Rule 70 makes special provision where a prisoner requires to see persons in connection with legal proceedings. Rules 71 to 76 make express provision with regard to visits by Members of Parliament, members of the Scottish Parliament, representatives to the European Parliament, the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration, the Parole Board for Scotland, journalists, authors or media representatives and persons in connection with disciplinary proceedings. Rule 77 enables the governor to terminate visits in certain circumstances and enables the Scottish Ministers to impose such conditions as may be specified in a direction on the entitlement of a prisoner to receive visits. Rule 78 provides for the use of closed visiting facilities in certain circumstances. Special arrangements for prisoners committed to prison in default of payments are set out in rule 79 to enable them to communicate with any person to arrange payment of money in order to secure their release.

Part 9 (rules 80 to 91) makes provision in relation to work, education, earnings, counselling and recreational activity. Except for young prisoners and untried and civil prisoners, all prisoners are required to work, for which they are entitled to receive earnings in terms of rule 88. Rules 89 and 90 make provision in relation to exercise and recreational activity. Prisoners are not permitted to carry on any trade, profession or vocation from the prison but are not prevented from writing articles or books (rule 91).

Part 10 (rules 92 to 112) makes provision in relation to security matters and the control of prisoners. General duties are dealt with in rules 92 and 93. Removal of a prisoner from association with other prisoners is dealt with in rule 94. Rules 95 and 96 regulate possession of prohibited articles and other property. The use of restraints for the control of prisoners is regulated by rules 97 and 98. Provision for the temporary confinement in special cells of violent prisoners is made in rule 99. Provision is also made in rule 100 to enable temporary confinement for a short period (not exceeding 30 minutes) where a prisoner's behaviour is such that it is appropriate to require him or her to remain in his or her cell. Admission and searching and removal of visitors is regulated by rules 101, 102 and 103. The searching of persons providing contracted out services is dealt with by rule 104. The searching of prisoners is regulated by rule 106. Compulsory testing for controlled drugs and alcohol are dealt with by rules 107 and 108 respectively. Searching prisoners' property is regulated by rule 108. Provision for prisoners' leave of absence under escort is made in rules 111 and 112.

Part 11 (rules 113 to 120) makes provision in relation to the disciplinary system. The acts or omissions constituting a breach of discipline are specified in Schedule 1. Rules 114 to 118 relate to the adjudication of charges of breaches of discipline and specify the procedure to be followed. Rules 119 and 120 regulate the imposition of punishments in relation to breaches of discipline.

Part 12 (rules 121 to 132) makes provision in relation to requests and complaints by prisoners. Rules 122 to 132 deal with the internal grievance procedures which a prisoner may invoke. The system provides for complaints to be made initially to a designated officer in the prisoner's accommodation hall. Thereafter, the complaint may be referred progressively to the manager of that hall, the internal complaints committee, and finally to the Governor in charge. There is a separate procedure prescribed for referring confidential matters directly to the Governor in charge for making complaints against medical officers and for referring certain categories of request directly to the Scottish Ministers (rule 128). Rules 129 and 130 make provision in relation to appeals and requests concerning disciplinary matters. Rule 131 makes provision for the Scottish Ministers to quash findings of guilt and to remit or mitigate punishments notwithstanding the conclusion of the internal appeals procedures within the prison.

Part 13 (rules 133 to 135) makes provision in relation to female prisoners, particularly pregnant prisoners or prisoners who have babies and who are permitted to have them in prison.

Part 14 (rules 136 to 139) makes provision in relation to arrangements for prisoners who are being transferred or discharged; and for part payment of fines by fine defaulters.

Part 15 (rules 140 to 147) sets out provisions in terms of which prisoners may be temporarily released from prison. The provisions describe different temporary release schemes comprising short leave and winter and summer leave (rule 140); pre-release leave (rule 141); unescorted day release of prisoners assigned low supervision level (rules 142 and 143); and temporary release for work etc (rule 144).

Part 16 (rules 148 to 153) makes provision in relation to officers and employees. It prescribes general duties and obligations and provides power to the governor to order the search of officers and employees in certain circumstances.

Part 17 (rules 154 to 164) makes provision in relation to visiting committees. Rule 155 sets out the requirement for the constitution of visiting committees of prisons. Rule 156 requires at least one third of the members of each visiting committee for young offenders institutions to be women. Rules 157 to 164 regulate the proceedings of the visiting committees and the duties of members.

Part 18 (rules 165 to 167) contains supplementary provisions in relation to various matters. Rule 165 contains supplementary provision as to the making of directions where any provision of the Rules authorises the making of a direction for a specified purpose. Rules 166 and 167, and Schedules 4 and 5, provide for revocation of various rules and savings and transitional provisions in connection therewith.
