HOUSING, WALES

The Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) Regulations 2016

Made - - - - - 15 November 2016

Coming into force - - - - - 23 November 2016

The Welsh Ministers, in exercise of the powers under section 250(2)(a) and (b) of, and Schedule 13 to, the Housing Act 2004⁽¹⁾ now vested in them⁽²⁾ make the following Regulations.

In accordance with section 250(6)(g) of that Act a draft of these Regulations has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the National Assembly for Wales.

PART 1
GENERAL

Title, commencement and application

1.—(1) The title of these Regulations is the Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) Regulations 2016 and they come into force on 23 November 2016.

(2) These Regulations apply to proceedings of residential property tribunals for determining applications in respect of premises in Wales.

“universal credit” (“credyd cynhwysol”) has the same meaning as in section 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012⁽⁹⁾.

PART 2

Residential Property Tribunal Procedures

The overriding objective and parties’ obligation to co-operate with the tribunal

3.—(1) When a tribunal—

- (a) exercises any power under these Regulations; or
- (b) interprets any regulation of these Regulations, it must seek to give effect to the overriding objective of dealing fairly and justly with applications which it is to determine.

(2) Dealing with an application fairly and justly includes—

- (a) dealing with it in ways which are proportionate to the complexity of the issues and to the resources of the parties;
- (b) ensuring, so far as practicable, that the parties are on an equal footing procedurally and are able to participate fully in the proceedings;
- (c) assisting any party in the presentation of the party’s case without advocating the course the party should take;
- (d) using the tribunal’s special expertise effectively; and
- (e) avoiding delay, so far as is compatible with proper consideration of the issues.

(3) Parties must—

- (a) help the tribunal to seek to give effect to the overriding objective; and
- (b) co-operate with the tribunal generally.

Request for extension of time to make an application

4.—(1) This regulation applies where a person makes a request to a tribunal for permission to make an application after the end of the period stipulated in the 2004 Act, the 2013 Act, the 2014 Act, the 2015 Act or the Site Rules Regulations as the period within which the application must be made.

(2) A request to which this regulation applies must—

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) give reasons for the failure to make the application before the end of that period and for any delay since then;
- (c) include a statement that the person making the request believes that the facts stated in it are true; and
- (d) be dated and signed.

(3) Where a request mentioned in paragraph (1) is made, the applicant must at the same time send the completed application to which the request relates to the tribunal.

(4) A single qualified member of the panel may grant or refuse a request made under paragraph (1).

(9) 2012 c. 5.

Limit on the number of pitches, mobile homes or references on a single application under the 2013 Act

5.—(1) Where an application to a tribunal to determine any question arising under the 2013 Act relates to more than one pitch or mobile home, the application may refer to only one provision of the 2013 Act.

(2) No application to a tribunal to determine any question arising under the 2013 Act may relate to more than 20 pitches or mobile homes.

Particulars of application

6.—(1) An application must be in writing and must contain the following particulars—

- (a) the name and address of the applicant;
- (b) the name and address of the respondent where known to the applicant or, where not known, a description of the respondent's connection with the premises;
- (c) the address of the premises;
- (d) the applicant's connection with the premises;
- (e) the applicant's reasons for making the application including the remedy sought;
- (f) where known to the applicant, the name and address of any interested person;
- (g) a statement that the applicant believes that the facts stated in the application are true;
- (h) be dated and signed; and
- (i) in respect of each application to which a paragraph in the Schedule to these Regulations applies, the documents specified in sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph.

(2) Any of the requirements contained in paragraph (1) may be dispensed with or relaxed if the tribunal is satisfied that—

- (a) the particulars and documents contained in an application are sufficient to establish that the application is one which may be made to a tribunal; and
- (b) no prejudice will be, or is likely to be, caused to any party to the application as a result of such dispensation or relaxation.

(3) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the power conferred by paragraph (2).

Applications following transfer of application made under the 2013 Act from the court to a tribunal

7.—(1) Where a court transfers to a tribunal any matter arising from an application to the court made under the 2013 Act, the applicant must, in addition to complying with the requirements contained in regulation 6(1), include in the application a copy of the court order by which the matter was transferred.

(2) The tribunal may dispense with or relax any of the requirements contained in paragraph (1) if the tribunal is satisfied that it has received sufficient particulars and documents from the court to establish that the application is one which may be made to a tribunal.

(3) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the power conferred by paragraph (2).

Acknowledgement and notification of application by tribunal

8.—(1) As soon as practicable after receiving the application, the tribunal must send an acknowledgement of receipt to the applicant, and send a copy of the application and of each document accompanying it to the respondent.

(2) Except in a case to which regulation 10 applies, the tribunal must also send to the respondent a notice—

- (a) specifying the date by which the respondent must send the reply mentioned in regulation 9;
- (b) specifying that any response must include—
 - (i) a statement as to whether or not the respondent intends to oppose the application;
 - (ii) where not already included in the application, the name and address of each interested person known to the respondent; and
 - (iii) the address to which documents should be sent for the purposes of the proceedings; and
- (c) warning the respondent that if the respondent does not respond by the date specified, and with the information specified the tribunal may—
 - (i) assume that the respondent does not intend to oppose the application; and
 - (ii) proceed with the matter in any way it considers to be reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

(3) The date specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (2) must not be less than 14 days after the date specified in the notice as the date on which it was made.

Reply by respondent

9.—(1) Where a respondent receives the notice mentioned in regulation 8(2), the respondent must by the date specified in the notice send to the tribunal a written reply acknowledging receipt of the copy documents sent in accordance with regulation 8(1) and provide the information required under regulation 8(2).

(2) Where the respondent fails to respond by the date specified in the notice mentioned in regulation 8(2) or fails to provide the information required under that paragraph, the tribunal may proceed with the matter in any way it considers to be reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

Urgent IMO authorisation applications

10.—(1) This regulation applies where the LHA requests a tribunal to deal with an IMO authorisation application as a matter of urgency.

(2) Where it appears to the tribunal, on the basis of information accompanying the application, that the exceptional circumstances mentioned in paragraph (3) exist, it must order that an oral hearing (an “urgent oral hearing”) be held.

(3) The exceptional circumstances are that—

- (a) there is an immediate threat to the health and safety of the occupiers of the house or to persons occupying or having an estate or interest in any premises in the vicinity of the house; and
- (b) by making the interim management order as soon as possible (together where applicable with such other measures as the LHA intends to take) the LHA will be able to take immediate appropriate steps to stop or significantly reduce the threat.

(4) The tribunal must as soon as practicable notify the parties and each interested person whose name and address have been notified to it—

- (a) that the application is being dealt with as a matter of urgency under this regulation;
- (b) of the reasons why it appears to the tribunal that the exceptional circumstances exist;
- (c) of any requirement to be satisfied by a party before the hearing; and
- (d) of the date on which the urgent oral hearing will be held.

- (5) The date of the hearing must be not less than 4 days, and not more than 10 days, after the date that notification of the urgent oral hearing is sent.
- (6) At the urgent oral hearing the tribunal must—
 - (a) if it is satisfied upon hearing evidence that the exceptional circumstances do exist, determine the application; or
 - (b) if it is not so satisfied—
 - (i) adjourn the hearing; and
 - (ii) give such directions as it considers appropriate.
- (7) A single qualified member of the panel may—
 - (a) exercise the power conferred by paragraph (2); and
 - (b) decide the date of the urgent oral hearing.
- (8) Where the tribunal orders an urgent oral hearing under paragraph (2) the notice provisions contained in the following regulations do not apply to the application—
 - (a) regulation 23(5) (notice for an inspection); and
 - (b) regulation 27(2) and (4) (notice of hearing).

Applications under the 2013 Act relating to detrimental effect of mobile homes on the amenity of the site

11.—(1) This regulation applies where a site owner applies for a determination by a tribunal under paragraph 7(1)(a) of Chapter 2, or paragraph 40(1)(a) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act that, having regard to its condition, a mobile home is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the site.

(2) Where, in the course of a hearing, the tribunal considers that the mobile home is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the site, but that if certain repairs to the mobile home were carried out, the mobile home would cease to have such a detrimental effect, it must—

- (a) inform the site owner and the occupier of the repairs which the tribunal considers should be carried out;
 - (b) invite both the occupier of the mobile home and the site owner to indicate in relation to those repairs—
 - (i) the time needed to carry them out; and
 - (ii) the cost of carrying them out; and
 - (c) invite the occupier of the mobile home to indicate whether or not the occupier would be willing to carry out those repairs.
- (3) The tribunal, having regard to any indications given under paragraph (2)(b) and (c) must either—
- (a) make a determination under paragraph 7(1)(a) of Chapter 2, or paragraph 40(1)(a) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act; or
 - (b) where paragraph 7(3) of Chapter 2, or paragraph 40(3) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of that Schedule applies, make an interim order requiring the occupier of the mobile home to carry out such repairs within such time as the tribunal considers reasonable.
- (4) Where the tribunal makes an interim order under paragraph (3)(b), it must adjourn the hearing and set the date of a new hearing, which must be no later than 7 days from the date stipulated in the order as the date by which the repairs must be carried out.

(5) When setting a new hearing date under paragraph (4), the tribunal must—

- (a) give the parties not less than 14 days' written notice of the hearing date; and
 - (b) invite both the site owner and the occupier to indicate, no later than 4 days before the new hearing date, whether (in their opinion) the repairs described in the order have been completed.
- (6) At the new hearing—
- (a) if the tribunal has received notification from both the occupier of the mobile home and the site owner that the repairs ordered under paragraph (3)(b) have been completed, the tribunal must dismiss the application;
 - (b) if the tribunal has not received such notification it must invite any party who is present to make any further representations as to the extent of repairs left to be carried out and the time needed to carry them out; and
 - (c) having considered any such representations, it must either make a further interim order under paragraph (3)(b) of this regulation or make a determination under paragraph 7(1)(a) of Chapter 2, or paragraph 40(1)(a) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act.

Request by a person to be treated as an applicant or respondent

12.—(1) A person (“the potential party”) may make a request to the tribunal to be joined as a party to the proceedings.

- (2) Any request under paragraph (1)—
- (a) may be made without notice;
 - (b) must be in writing;
 - (c) must give reasons for the request; and
 - (d) must specify whether the potential party wishes to be treated as—
 - (i) an applicant; or
 - (ii) a respondent.

(3) A tribunal may refuse a request under paragraph (1) where the tribunal is not satisfied that the potential party is an interested person or a person who has sufficient interest in the outcome of proceedings.

(4) As soon as practicable after reaching its decision whether to grant or refuse a request under paragraph (1), the tribunal must—

- (a) notify the potential party of the decision and the reasons for it; and
- (b) send a copy of the notification to the existing parties.

(5) Any potential party whose request under paragraph (1) is granted must be treated as an applicant or respondent for the purposes of these Regulations.

(6) In these Regulations any reference to an applicant or a respondent must be construed as including a person treated as such under this regulation, and any reference to a party must be construed as including any such person.

(7) A single qualified member of the panel may grant or refuse a request under paragraph (1).

Determining applications together

13.—(1) This regulation applies where separate applications have been made which, in the opinion of the tribunal—

- (a) in the case of applications made under the 2004 Act—
 - (i) involve related issues concerning the same premises; or

- (ii) are made in respect of two or more premises in which the same person is the person having control of each of those premises and the same LHA is either the applicant or respondent in respect of each of those premises;
 - (b) in the case of applications made under the 2013 Act—
 - (i) involve related issues concerning the same protected site; or
 - (ii) are made in respect of two or more protected sites and the site owner of each of those sites is the same;
 - (c) in the case of applications made under the 2014 Act—
 - (i) involve related issues concerning the same landlord;
 - (ii) involve related issues concerning the same dwelling; or
 - (iii) involve related issues concerning the same agent licensed under section 9 or section 11 of the 2014 Act;
 - (d) in the case of applications made under the 2015 Act involve related issues concerning the same letting agent.
- (2) Where paragraph (1) applies, the tribunal may order that—
- (a) some or all of those applications; or
 - (b) particular issues or matters raised in the applications,
- are determined together.
- (3) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the power conferred by paragraph (2).

Payment of fees

14. Where a fee which is payable under Part 3 of these Regulations is not paid within a period of 14 days from the date on which the application is received, the application is deemed withdrawn unless the tribunal is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds not to do so.

Representatives

- 15.—(1) This regulation—
- (a) applies where a party, an interested person, or the representative of a party or an interested person, makes a request in writing to the tribunal for information or documents to be supplied to the representative of a party or interested person, but
 - (b) ceases to apply when the tribunal receives written notification that the representative has ceased representing that party or interested person.
- (2) A request mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) must contain the name and address of the representative.
- (3) Where this regulation applies, any duty of the tribunal under these Regulations to supply any information or document to the party or interested person is satisfied by sending or giving it to the representative.

Supply of information and documents to interested persons

- 16.—(1) Where the tribunal is notified of the name and address of an interested person, it must ensure that as soon as is practicable that person is supplied with—
- (a) a copy of the application;
 - (b) an explanation of the procedure for applying to be joined as an applicant or respondent; and

- (c) any other information or document which the tribunal considers appropriate.
- (2) The tribunal may ensure the supply of information or documents under paragraph (1) by—
 - (a) supplying the interested person with the information or documents;
 - (b) supplying the information or documents to a representative of the interested person; or
 - (c) requiring a party by an order made under regulation 22 to supply the information or documents to the interested person or the interested person’s representative.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), where—
 - (a) information and documents are supplied to an interested person in accordance with paragraph (1); and
 - (b) the tribunal receives a request from that interested person to continue to supply the interested person with information and documents, the tribunal must continue to ensure the supply to that interested person of any information or document concerning the matter to which the proceedings relate which the tribunal considers appropriate.

(4) The tribunal’s duty under paragraph (3) ceases upon the interested person being joined as a party under regulation 12 or upon notification that the interested person no longer wishes to receive the information or documents.

Supply of documents by tribunal

17.—(1) Before determining an application, the tribunal must take all reasonable steps to ensure that each of the parties is supplied with—

- (a) a copy of any document relevant to the proceedings (or sufficient extracts from or particulars of the document) which has been received from any other party or from an interested person (other than a document already in that party’s possession or one of which that party has previously been supplied with a copy); and
- (b) a copy of any document which embodies the results of any relevant enquiries made by or for the tribunal for the purposes of the proceedings.

(2) At a hearing, if a party has not previously received a relevant document or a copy of, or sufficient extracts from or particulars of, a relevant document, then unless—

- (a) that person consents to the continuation of the hearing; or
- (b) the tribunal considers that that person has a sufficient opportunity to deal with the matters to which the document relates without an adjournment of the hearing, the tribunal must adjourn the hearing for a period which it considers will give that person sufficient opportunity to deal with those matters.

Supply of information and documents by parties

18.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5), the tribunal may make an order requiring a party to supply to the tribunal any information or document which it is in the power of that party to supply and which is specified, or is of a description specified, in the order.

(2) The tribunal may make an order requiring a party to supply to another party, or to an interested person, copies of any documents supplied or to be supplied to the tribunal under paragraph (1).

(3) A party who is subject to an order made under paragraph (1) or (2) must supply such information, documents or copies by such time as may be specified in, or determined in accordance with, the order.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5) the tribunal may make an order requiring any person to attend an oral hearing to give evidence and produce any documents specified, or of a description specified, in the order which it is in the power of that person to produce.

(5) Paragraphs (1) and (4) do not apply in relation to any document which a person could not be compelled to produce on the trial of an action in a court of law in England and Wales.

(6) A single qualified member of the panel may make an order under paragraph (1), (2) or (4) which is—

- (a) preliminary to an oral hearing; or
- (b) preliminary or incidental to a determination.

Failure to comply with an order to supply information and documents

19. Where a party has failed to comply with an order made under regulation 18(1), (2) or (4) the tribunal may—

- (a) draw such inferences as it thinks fit; or
- (b) make an order dismissing or allowing the whole or part of the application.

Determination without a hearing

20.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (7) the tribunal may determine an application without an oral hearing if it has given the parties not less than 14 days' notice in writing of its intention to do so.

(2) At any time before the application is determined—

- (a) the applicant or the respondent may request an oral hearing; or
- (b) the tribunal may give notice to the parties that it intends to hold an oral hearing.

(3) Where a request is made or a notice given under paragraph (2) the tribunal must give notice of a hearing in accordance with regulation 27.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), a determination without an oral hearing may be made in the absence of any representations by the respondent.

(5) In respect of an application made under paragraphs 5, 6, 7 or 14 of Chapter 2, or paragraphs 38, 39, 40 or 44 of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act, a determination without an oral hearing may only be made—

- (a) where the respondent has notified the tribunal that the respondent does not oppose the application; or
- (b) all parties have notified the tribunal that they consent to the application being determined without a hearing.

(6) A single qualified member of the panel may decide whether an oral hearing is or is not appropriate to determine an application.

(7) This regulation does not apply to an application to which regulation 10 (urgent IMO authorisation applications) applies.

Interim orders

21.—(1) A tribunal may make an order on an interim basis (an “interim order”)—

- (a) suspending, in whole or in part, the effect of any decision, notice, order or licence which is the subject matter of proceedings before it; or
- (b) for the time being granting any remedy which it would have had power to grant in its final decision.

(2) Where the tribunal makes an interim order without first giving the parties the opportunity to make representations with regard to making it, a party may request that the interim order be varied or set aside.

(3) Any such request may be made—

- (a) orally at a hearing;
- (b) in writing; or
- (c) by such other means as the tribunal may permit.

(4) The tribunal must provide to each party as soon as reasonably practicable after making an interim order a notice setting out the order and, except in the case of an order made with the consent of all parties, giving reasons for the decision to make the order.

(5) This regulation does not apply to an application to which regulation 10 (urgent IMO authorisation applications) applies.

Directions

22.—(1) A party may request the tribunal to give a direction by order under its general power in section 230(2) of the 2004 Act.

(2) A party to whom a procedural direction is addressed may request the tribunal to vary it or set it aside.

(3) A request referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) may be made—

- (a) orally at a case management conference or hearing;
- (b) in writing; or
- (c) by such other means as the tribunal may permit.

(4) A party making a request under paragraph (1) must specify the procedural directions which are sought and the reasons for seeking them.

(5) A single qualified member of the panel may give a procedural direction as to any matter which is—

- (a) preliminary to an oral hearing; or
- (b) preliminary or incidental to a determination.

(6) In paragraphs (2), (4) and (5) “procedural direction” (“cyfarwyddyd gweithdrefnol”) means any direction other than a direction set out in paragraphs (a) to (e) of section 230(5) or paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 230(5A) of the 2004 Act.

Inspection of premises and neighbourhood

23.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3) the tribunal may inspect—

- (a) the premises;
- (b) any other premises inspection of which may assist the tribunal in determining the application;
- (c) the locality of the premises.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the tribunal must give the parties an opportunity to attend an inspection.

(3) The making of and attendance at an inspection is subject to any necessary consent being obtained.

(4) Where there is an oral hearing, an inspection may be carried out before, during, or after the hearing.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), the tribunal must give the parties not less than 14 days' notice of the date, time and place of the inspection.

(6) The requirement for notice in paragraph (5) may be dispensed with or relaxed if the tribunal is satisfied that the parties have received sufficient notice.

(7) Where an inspection is made after the close of an oral hearing, the tribunal may reopen the hearing on account of any matter arising from the inspection, after giving reasonable notice of the date, time and place of the reopened hearing to the parties.

(8) Where an application is to be determined by a single qualified member of the panel, the functions of the tribunal under this regulation may be exercised by that member.

Expert evidence

24.—(1) In this regulation “expert” (“arbenigwr”) means an independent expert who is not an employee of a party.

(2) Subject to paragraph (4) a party may adduce expert evidence, and in doing so must—

- (a) provide the tribunal with a written summary of the evidence; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (5), supply a copy of that written summary to each other party at least 7 days before—
 - (i) the date of the relevant oral hearing notified in relation to the application under regulation 27; or
 - (ii) the date notified under regulation 20 upon which the application will be determined without an oral hearing.

(3) An expert's written summary of evidence must—

- (a) be addressed to the tribunal;
- (b) include details of the expert's qualifications;
- (c) contain a summary of the instructions the expert has received for the making of the report; and
- (d) contain a statement that the expert understands and has complied with the duty to assist the tribunal on the matters within the expert's expertise, overriding any obligation to the person from whom the expert has received instructions or by whom the expert is employed or paid.

(4) Where the tribunal gives a direction, under its general power in section 230(2) of the 2004 Act, that a party may not adduce expert evidence without its permission, it may specify as a condition of that permission that—

- (a) the expert's evidence must be limited to such matters as the tribunal directs;
- (b) the expert must attend a hearing to give oral evidence; or
- (c) the parties must jointly instruct the expert.

(5) The time limit in paragraph (2)(b) may be dispensed with or relaxed if the tribunal is satisfied that the parties have received sufficient notice.

Case management conference

25.—(1) The tribunal may hold a case management conference.

(2) The tribunal must give the parties not less than 7 days' notice of the date, time and place of the case management conference.

(3) At the case management conference the tribunal may order the parties to take such steps or do such things as appear to it to be necessary or desirable for securing the just, expeditious and economical determination of the application.

(4) The tribunal may postpone or adjourn a case management conference.

(5) A party may be represented at a case management conference.

(6) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the power conferred by paragraph (1), (3) or (4).

Other case management powers

26.—(1) The tribunal may—

(a) reduce the time appointed by or under these Regulations for doing any act where all parties agree the reduction in question;

(b) extend the time appointed by or under these Regulations for doing any act, even if the time appointed has expired, where—

(i) it would not be reasonable to expect the person in question to comply or have complied within that time; or

(ii) not to extend the time would result in substantial injustice;

(c) permit the use of telephone, video link, or any other method of communication—

(i) to make representations to the tribunal; or

(ii) for the purposes of a case management conference or hearing;

(d) require any person giving written evidence to include with that evidence a signed statement that the person believes the facts stated in the evidence are true;

(e) take any other step or make any other decision which the tribunal considers necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing the case.

(2) The tribunal may exercise its powers under these Regulations in response to a request to do so or on its own initiative.

(3) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the powers under this regulation as to any matter which is preliminary to—

(a) an oral hearing; or

(b) a determination which is to be made without an oral hearing.

Notice of hearing

27.—(1) The tribunal must give notice to the parties of the date, time and place of any hearing.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), notice of the hearing must be given not less than 21 days before the appointed date.

(3) In exceptional circumstances the tribunal may, without the agreement of the parties, give less than 21 days' notice of the appointed date, time and place of the hearing; but any such notice must be given as soon as practicable before the appointed date and the notice must specify what the exceptional circumstances are.

(4) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the power in paragraph (3).

Postponement of hearing

28.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), the tribunal may postpone an oral hearing.

(2) The tribunal must give reasonable notice to the parties of the time and date to which a hearing is postponed.

(3) Where postponement has been requested by a party the tribunal must not postpone the hearing except where it considers it is reasonable to do so having regard to—

- (a) the grounds for the request;
- (b) the time at which the request is made; and
- (c) the convenience of the parties.

(4) A single qualified member of the panel may exercise the functions of the tribunal under this regulation.

Hearing

29.—(1) At a hearing—

- (a) the tribunal must (subject to these Regulations) determine the procedure and conduct;
- (b) any person appearing before the tribunal may do so either in person or through a representative;
- (c) the parties are entitled to—
 - (i) give relevant evidence;
 - (ii) call witnesses;
 - (iii) question any witness; and
 - (iv) address the tribunal on the evidence and on the law and generally on the subject matter of the application; and
- (d) the tribunal may receive evidence of any fact or any opinion which seems to be relevant, even if the evidence or opinion would be inadmissible in proceedings before a court of law, and must not refuse to admit any evidence or opinion presented in due time which is admissible at law and is relevant and necessary and has not been improperly obtained.

(2) At a hearing the tribunal may, if it is satisfied that it is just and reasonable to do so, permit a party to rely on reasons not previously stated and on evidence not previously available or not previously adduced.

(3) The tribunal may adjourn a hearing, but if this is done at the request of a party it must consider that it is reasonable to do so having regard to—

- (a) the grounds for the request;
- (b) the time at which the request is made; and
- (c) the convenience of the parties.

Hearing in public or private

30.—(1) A hearing must be in public except where the tribunal is satisfied that in the circumstances of the case, and subject to the overriding objective described in regulation 3 the hearing should be held in private.

(2) The tribunal may decide under paragraph (1) that—

- (a) part only of the hearing must be in private; or
- (b) any of the following matters must not be made public—
 - (i) information about the proceedings before the tribunal;
 - (ii) the names and identifying characteristics of persons concerned in the proceedings; or

(iii) specified evidence given in the proceedings.

Persons entitled to be present at a hearing held in private

31.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the following persons are entitled to attend a hearing held in private and to be present at the tribunal’s deliberations with respect to the determination of the application—

- (a) a president or chair or other panel member not forming part of the tribunal for the purpose of the hearing;
- (b) staff of the tribunal;
- (c) any other person permitted by the tribunal, with the consent of the parties.

(2) None of the persons specified in paragraph (1) may take any part in the hearing or such deliberations.

(3) The tribunal may admit persons to a hearing held in private on such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate.

Failure of a party to appear at a hearing

32. Where a party fails to appear at a hearing the tribunal may proceed with the hearing if—

- (a) it is satisfied that notice of the hearing has been given to that party in accordance with these Regulations; and
- (b) it is not satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appear.

Decisions of a tribunal in determining applications

33.—(1) This regulation applies to a decision determining an application.

(2) If a hearing is held, the decision may be given orally at the hearing.

(3) The tribunal must provide to each party, as soon as reasonably practicable after making a decision which finally disposes of an application, a notice stating the tribunal’s decision (“decision document”).

(4) The decision document must—

- (a) be signed and dated by an appropriate person;
- (b) set out—
 - (i) the decision the tribunal has made;
 - (ii) the reasons for reaching the decision;
 - (iii) the date of the decision;
 - (iv) any action that any party to the proceedings must take and the date by which that action must be taken; and

(c) give an explanation of the right of a party to appeal against the decision.

(5) An appropriate person may, by means of a certificate signed and dated by the appropriate person, correct any clerical mistakes in a decision document or any errors or ambiguities arising in it from an accidental slip or omission.

(6) A copy of any correction certified under paragraph (5) must be sent to each party.

(7) In this regulation “appropriate person” (“person priodol”) means—

- (a) the Chair of the tribunal; or

- (b) in the event of the absence or incapacity of the Chair of the tribunal, another member of the tribunal.

Determination of costs

34.—(1) The tribunal must not make a determination under paragraph 12 of Schedule 13 to the 2004 Act in respect of a party without first giving that party an opportunity of making representations to the tribunal.

(2) Where an application is determined by a single qualified member of the panel that member may make a costs determination in respect of a party to the proceedings on the application.

(3) In respect of an application to the tribunal under the 2013 Act or the Site Rules Regulations, the amount which a party to proceedings may be ordered to pay in the proceedings by a determination made under paragraph 12 of Schedule 13 to the 2004 Act must not exceed £10,000.

Withdrawal of application

35.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), an applicant (“the withdrawing party”) (“y parti sy’n tynnu’n ôl”) may withdraw the whole or a part of the applicant’s application in accordance with paragraph (2)

- (a) at any time before a tribunal begins considering the evidence of the application (whether or not at any oral hearing); and
 - (b) at any time after the tribunal begins considering the evidence of the application (whether or not at any oral hearing), provided that—
 - (i) the tribunal is satisfied that the other parties to the application consent to the application being withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the tribunal consents to the application being withdrawn.
- (2) The withdrawing party must notify withdrawal of that application by a signed and dated notice supplied to the tribunal—
- (a) sufficiently identifying the application or part of the application which is withdrawn;
 - (b) stating whether any part of the application, and if so what, remains to be determined; and
 - (c) confirming that a copy of the notice of the withdrawal has been supplied to all other parties and stating the date on which this was done.
- (3) If any of the circumstances in paragraph (4) exist, withdrawal of the application does not take effect until one of the courses of action in paragraph (6) has been carried out.
- (4) The circumstances mentioned in paragraph (3) are that—
- (a) the tribunal has invited the parties to the proceedings—
 - (i) to make representations to it as to whether any payment by way of compensation, damages, costs or reimbursement of fees should be repaid to any party; and
 - (ii) to respond to any representations the tribunal receives under paragraph (i);and having regard to any representations made to the tribunal by any party under this sub-paragraph, the tribunal has made such order as to payment by way of compensation, damages, costs or reimbursement of fees it reasonably considers should be paid, having regard to all the circumstances of the case;
 - (b) an interim order in favour of a party has been made; or
 - (c) a party has given an undertaking to the tribunal.
- (5) When inviting representations from the parties under paragraph (4)(a) the tribunal may direct the parties as to the time within which such representations must be provided.

- (6) The courses of action mentioned in paragraph (3) are that—
- (a) the withdrawing party has sent to the tribunal a written statement signed by all other parties setting out how any order made under paragraph (4)(a), any interim order made under paragraph (4)(b) or any undertaking given under paragraph (4)(c) which apply to the case are to be dealt with; or
 - (b) the withdrawing party has given notice of the intended withdrawal to all parties and—
 - (i) the withdrawing party has requested the tribunal to give directions as to the conditions on which the withdrawal may be made; and
 - (ii) the tribunal has given such directions.
- (7) In giving directions under paragraph (6)(b)(ii) the tribunal may impose such conditions as it considers appropriate.
- (8) A single qualified member of the panel may make an order under paragraph (4)(b), or give directions under paragraph (5) or (6)(b)(ii).

Enforcement

36. Any decision of the tribunal may, with the permission of the county court, be enforced in the same way as orders of such a court.

Permission to appeal

37.—(1) In this regulation “to appeal” (“apelio”) means to make an appeal from a decision of the tribunal to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber) and “appellant” (“apelydd”) bears a corresponding meaning.

(2) Where a party makes a request to the tribunal for permission to appeal the request may be made—

- (a) orally at the hearing at which the decision is announced by the tribunal; or
- (b) subsequently in writing to the office of the tribunal.

(3) A request for permission to appeal must be made within 21 days of the date specified in the decision notice as the date the decision was given.

(4) Where a request for permission to appeal is made in writing it must be signed by the appellant or the appellant’s representative and must—

- (a) state the name and address of the appellant and of any representative of the appellant;
- (b) identify the decision and the tribunal to which the request for permission to appeal relates; and
- (c) state the grounds on which the appellant intends to rely in the appeal.

(5) The tribunal must within the period of 14 days starting with the day the tribunal receives the request for permission to appeal—

- (a) send a copy of that request to the other party including any interested party to the application which is the subject of the request; and
- (b) where the appellant withdraws the request for permission to appeal, inform the other party of that withdrawal.

(6) As soon as reasonably practicable after making a decision on a request for permission to appeal the tribunal must send a notice, including reasons for the decision, to the appellant and to the other parties to the application which is the subject of the appeal.

(7) A determination or interim order of a tribunal under regulation 11(3) is treated as a decision of the tribunal for the purposes of this regulation.

(8) A decision under paragraph (6) must include a statement of any relevant statutory provision, rule or guidance relating to any further request to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber) for permission to appeal and of the time and place for making the further request or for giving notice of appeal.

Assistance to participants

38.—(1) In this regulation “participant” (“cyfranogwr”) means an applicant or a party or witness or other person taking part in proceedings relating to an application or to whom an order of the tribunal is addressed.

(2) If a participant informs the tribunal that the participant is unable to read or speak or understand the English language or the Welsh language, the tribunal must make arrangements for the participant to be provided, free of charge, with the necessary translations and assistance of an interpreter to enable the participant’s effective participation in the proceedings.

(3) If a participant informs the tribunal that the participant is unable to read English or Welsh as a consequence of being temporarily or permanently blind or partially sighted, the tribunal must make arrangements for that participant to be provided, free of charge, with the necessary assistance (which may include, but is not limited to, the provision of documents in Braille or in large print, or a reader of the documents) to enable the participant’s effective participation in the proceedings.

(4) If a participant informs the tribunal that the participant is able to speak in English or Welsh, but is unable to read or write in English or Welsh, the tribunal must provide the participant with the services of a person to read and explain the nature and content of any documents, and to write any documents on behalf of the participant that the participant reasonably requires for the purpose of enabling the participant’s effective participation in the proceedings.

(5) The requirement for a tribunal to provide a participant with the services of a person to read, write or explain the nature and content of documents under paragraph (4) does not include a requirement for a tribunal to give any legal advice, but includes a requirement to explain the procedural steps in the proceedings.

(6) If a participant is without hearing or speech, the tribunal must make arrangements for that participant to be provided, free of charge, with the services of a sign language interpreter, lip speaker, or palantypist, to enable that participant’s effective participation in the proceedings.

(7) A participant is entitled to assistance under this regulation whether or not the participant is represented by someone else.

(8) A participant requiring assistance under this regulation, but not receiving it, must at the earliest opportunity notify the requirement for assistance to the tribunal.

(9) This regulation does not in any way restrict the overriding objective of a tribunal described in regulation 3.

Requirements for supply of notices and documents

39.—(1) Any document or notice required or authorised by these Regulations to be supplied to any person, body or authority is deemed to have been duly supplied to that person, body or authority—

- (a) if it is sent to the proper address of that person, body or authority by first class post or by special delivery or recorded delivery;
- (b) if it is delivered by any other means to the proper address of that person, body or authority;
- (c) if with the written consent of the person, body or authority, it is sent to that person, body or authority—

- (i) by fax, email or other electronic communication which produces a text received in legible form; or
 - (ii) by a private document delivery service.
- (2) The proper address for the purposes of paragraph (1) is—
- (a) in the case of the tribunal, the address of the office of the tribunal;
 - (b) in the case of an incorporated company or other body registered in the United Kingdom, the address of the registered or principal office of the company or body;
 - (c) in the case of any other person, body or authority, the usual or last known address of that person, body or authority.
- (3) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) an intended recipient of a document or notice—
 - (i) cannot be found after all diligent enquiries have been made;
 - (ii) has died and has no personal representative; or
 - (iii) is out of the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) for any other reason a notice or other document cannot readily be supplied in accordance with these Regulations.
- (4) Where paragraph (3) applies, the tribunal may—
- (a) dispense with supplying the notice or other document; or
 - (b) give directions for substituted service in such other form (whether by advertisement in a newspaper or otherwise) or manner as the tribunal thinks fit.
- (5) Where it is required under the 2004 Act, the 1985 Act, the 2013 Act, the 2014 Act, the 2015 Act or these Regulations that a party must provide evidence that the party has supplied any person with a document, a party may satisfy the requirement by providing a certificate signed by the party confirming that the document was served in accordance with the requirements of this regulation.

Time

40.—(1) Where the time specified by these Regulations for doing any act expires on a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, it is treated as expiring on the next following day which is not a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday.

(2) A public holiday means Christmas Day, Good Friday or day which under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 is a bank holiday.

Frivolous and vexatious etc. applications

41.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where it appears to the tribunal that an application is—

- (a) frivolous;
- (b) vexatious; or
- (c) an abuse of process,

the tribunal may dismiss the application in whole or in part.

(2) Subject to paragraph (6) where it appears to the tribunal that an applicant has failed to comply with a direction issued by the tribunal in connection with the supply or provision, disclosure or inspection of information or documents in connection with attendance at the tribunal, the tribunal may dismiss the application in whole or in part.

(3) Before dismissing an application under paragraph (1) the tribunal must give notice of its intention to do so to the applicant in accordance with paragraph (4).

(4) Any notice under paragraph (3) must state—

- (a) that the tribunal is minded to dismiss the application;
- (b) the grounds on which it is minded to dismiss the application;
- (c) that the applicant is entitled to be heard by the tribunal on the question of whether the application should be dismissed, and
- (d) the latest date by which the applicant may request to be heard by the tribunal, being not less than 14 days after the date that the notice was sent.

(5) An application may not be dismissed under paragraph (1) unless—

- (a) the applicant makes no request to the tribunal before the date mentioned in paragraph (4) (c); or
- (b) where the applicant makes such a request, the tribunal has heard the applicant and the respondent, or such of them as attend the hearing, on the question of the dismissal of the application.

(6) The tribunal may not dismiss the whole or part of the application under paragraph (2) without first giving the applicant an opportunity to make representations in relation to the proposed dismissal.

(7) If the application, or part of it, is dismissed under paragraph (2), the applicant may apply for the application, or part of it, to be reinstated.

Irregularities

42. Any irregularity resulting from failure by a party to comply with any provision of these Regulations or of any direction of the tribunal before the tribunal has determined the application does not of itself render the proceedings void.

Signature of documents

43. Where these Regulations require a document to be signed, that requirement is satisfied—

- (a) if the signature is either written or produced by computer or other mechanical means; and
- (b) the name of the signatory appears beneath the signature in such a way that the signatory may be identified.

PART 3

Residential Property Tribunal Fees

Fees for applications made under the 1985 Act

44. Subject to regulation 51(2), a fee of £155 is payable for an application to a tribunal under the following provisions of the 1985 Act—

- (viii) paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 (prohibition order);
- (ix) paragraph 9 of Schedule 2 (LHA's decision to vary, or to refuse to revoke or vary, a prohibition order);
- (x) paragraph 11 of Schedule 3 (improvement notice: demand for recovery of expenses);
- (xi) paragraph 31 of Schedule 5 (grant or refusal of licence);
- (xii) paragraph 32 of Schedule 5 (HMO licensing: decision to vary or revoke, or to refuse to vary or revoke licence);
- (xiii) paragraph 28 of Schedule 6 (LHA's decision to vary or revoke, or to refuse to vary or revoke, a management order);
- (xiv) paragraph 32 of Schedule 6 (management order: third party compensation);
- (xv) paragraph 26(1)(a) and (b) of Schedule 7 (final EDMO);
- (xvi) paragraph 30 of Schedule 7 (LHA's decision to vary or revoke, or to refuse to vary or revoke, an interim or final EDMO);
- (xvii) paragraph 34(2) of Schedule 7 (EDMO: third party compensation).

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) and regulation 51(2), a fee of £155 is payable for an application to a tribunal under paragraph 24 of Schedule 6 to the 2004 Act (interim and final management order).

(3) No fee is payable where an application under sub-paragraph (1)(b) of paragraph 24 of Schedule 6 to the 2004 Act is made on the grounds set out in sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph.

Fees for applications made under the 2013 Act

46.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5) and regulation 51(2) a fee of £155 is payable for an application to a tribunal under regulation 10 (right to appeal to tribunal in relation to the owner's decision) and regulation 17 (right to appeal to tribunal in relation to a deposit) of the Site Rules Regulations.

(2) Subject to paragraph (5) and regulation 51(2), a fee is payable for an application to a tribunal under the following provisions of the 2013 Act—

- (a) section 7(4)(b) (site licence: refusal to issue);
- (b) section 12(2) (conditions of site licence: appeal);
- (c) section 14(1) (variation of conditions of site licence: appeal);
- (d) section 17(2) (compliance notice: appeal);
- (e) section 21(9) (emergency action: appeal);
- (f) section 22(7) (demand for expenses: appeal);

 - (h) section 29(6)(b) (fit and proper person);
 - (i) section 30(5) (interim manager);
 - (j) section 33(4) (repayment order);
 - (k) section 49(5) (written statement);
 - (l) section 50(2) or (3) (implied/express terms in site agreement);
 - (m) section 54 (jurisdiction of a tribunal or the court);
 - (n) paragraphs 5, 6 or 7 of Chapter 2, or paragraphs 38, 39 or 40(1) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 (termination);
 - (o) paragraphs 10 or 13 of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 (sale or gift of a mobile home);
 - (p) paragraphs 14 of Chapter 2, or 44 of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 (re-siting of mobile home); and
 - (q) paragraph 42(8) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 (assignment of agreement).
- (3) The fee payable for each application referred to in paragraph (2) is—
- (a) where the application contains one reference, £155;
 - (b) where the application contains two references, £205;
 - (c) where the application contains three or four references, £410;
 - (d) where the application contains five or more references, £515.
- (4) For the purpose of paragraph (3), the number of references contained in an application is—
- (a) in the case of an application made in respect of one pitch or mobile home, the number of provisions of the 2013 Act to which that application relates; and
 - (b) in the case of an application made in respect of more than one pitch or mobile home, the number of pitches or mobile homes to which the application relates.
- (5) No fee is payable to a tribunal in relation to an application made under the 2013 Act that has been transferred from a court to a tribunal.

Fees for applications made under the 2014 Act

47. Subject to regulation 51(2) a fee of £155 is payable for an application to a tribunal under the following provisions of the 2014 Act—

- (a) section 17(4) (revocation of registration);
- (b) section 27(1) (licensing appeals);
- (c) section 30 (rent stopping orders);
- (d) section 31 (revocation of rent stopping orders);
- (e) section 32 (rent repayment orders).

Fees for applications made under the 2015 Act

48. Subject to regulation 51(2) a fee of £155 is payable for an application to a tribunal under paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 to the 2015 Act.

Payment of fees

49. Any fee payable under regulation 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48 must accompany the application and must be paid by a cheque made payable to, or postal order drawn in favour of, the Welsh Ministers.

Liability to pay fee and waiver of fees

50.—(1) The applicant is liable to pay any fee payable under regulation 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48.

(2) No fee is payable under regulation 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48 where, on the date that the application is made, the applicant or that person’s partner is in receipt of—

- (a) either of the following benefits under Part 7 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992—
 - (i) income support; or
 - (ii) housing benefit;
 - (b) an income-based jobseeker’s allowance within the meaning of section 1 of the Jobseekers Act 1995;
 - (c) a working tax credit under Part 1 of the Tax Credits Act 2002 to which paragraph (3) applies;
 - (d) a guarantee credit under the State Pensions Credit Act 2002;
 - (e) an income-related employment and support allowance payable under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007;
 - (f) personal independent payments payable under Part 4 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012; or
 - (g) universal credit.
- (3) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) either—
 - (i) there is a disability element or severe disability element (or both) to the working tax credit received by the person or the person’s partner; or
 - (ii) the person or the person’s partner is also in receipt of child tax credit; and
 - (b) the gross annual income taken into account for the calculation of the working tax credit is £16,190 or less.
- (4) In this regulation and in regulation 51, “partner” (“partner”), in relation to a person, means—
- (a) where the person is a member of a couple, the other member of that couple; or
 - (b) where the person is polygamously married to two or more members of a household, any such member.
- (5) In paragraph (4), “couple” (“cwpl”) means—
- (a) two people who are either married to, or civil partners of, each other and who are members of the same household; or
 - (b) two people who are living together as if they are a married couple.

Reimbursement of fees

51.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), in relation to any application in respect of which a fee is payable under regulation 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48, a tribunal may require any party to the application to reimburse any other party to the extent of the whole or part of any fee paid by that party in respect of the application.

(2) A tribunal may not require a party to make such reimbursement if, at the time the tribunal is considering whether or not to do so, the tribunal is satisfied that the party or a partner of the party is in receipt of assistance of any description mentioned in regulation 50(2).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and consolidate the provisions of the Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) Regulations 2012, the Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2014, the Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) (Amendment No. 2) Regulations 2014 and the Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2015.

They also revoke and amend the legislation listed at regulation 52.

The Regulations also make provision in light of sections 30 to 34 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 (“the 2014 Act”) with regards to applications made under the 2014 Act in respect of rent stopping orders and rent repayment orders. The Regulations also provide a power for a residential property tribunal (“tribunal”) to close inactive applications.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Part 2 of the Regulations specifies the procedure to be followed for applications and appeals (jointly referred to as applications) made to a tribunal under the 2014 Act, the Mobile Homes (Wales) Act 2013 (“the 2013 Act”), the Housing Act 2004 (“the 2004 Act”) and Part 9 of the Housing Act 1985 (“the 1985 Act”), which relates to demolition orders.

Part 3 of the Regulations makes provision for the payment of fees in respect of certain appeals and applications to tribunals.

Regulation 1 specifies the proceedings to which the Regulations apply.

Regulation 2 defines the terms used in the Regulations.

Regulation 3 sets out the overriding objective of dealing fairly and justly with applications and the requirement to co-operate with the tribunal.

Regulation 4 makes provision in connection with requests for extension of time to make an application, in those cases where the 2014 Act, the Mobile Homes (Site Rules) (Wales) Regulations 2014, the 2013 Act or the 2004 Act gives a tribunal power to permit such an extension.

Regulation 5 provides that where a person’s application under the 2013 Act relates to more than one pitch or mobile home the application may refer to only one provision of the 2013 Act and the maximum number of pitches or mobile homes to which any single application may relate is 20.

Regulation 6 gives details of the information to be included with an application, and provides for additional documents for particular applications, as set out in sub-paragraph (2) of each paragraph of the Schedule to the Regulations.

Regulation 7 makes provision for the procedures that apply where a matter arising under the 2013 Act is transferred from a court to a tribunal.

Regulation 8 makes provision in respect of a tribunal acknowledging an application and sending to the respondent copy documents and a notice specifying the date by which the respondent should reply to the tribunal.

Regulation 9 deals with the respondent’s reply.

Regulation 10 permits a tribunal to hold an urgent oral hearing at short notice where a Local Housing Authority has applied for authorisation of an interim management order under section 102(4) or (7) of the 2004 Act, and where it appears to the tribunal on the basis of information accompanying the application that specified exceptional circumstances exist.

Regulation 11 specifies the additional procedures that apply in respect of an application made under paragraph 7(1)(a) of Chapter 2, or paragraph 40(1)(a) of Chapter 4, of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act for a determination by a tribunal as to whether, having regard to its condition, a mobile home is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the protected site.

Regulation 12 deals with applications to be joined as a party to the proceedings.

Regulation 13 specifies circumstances where two or more separate applications, or particular issues arising in separate applications, may be determined together.

Regulation 14 provides that where an application fee is unpaid for 14 days, the application is treated as withdrawn unless there are reasonable grounds not to do so.

Regulation 15 enables the duty to supply a document to be satisfied by supplying it to a party’s or interested person’s representative where this is requested in writing.

Regulation 16 requires a tribunal to ensure that interested persons are notified of an application together with an explanation of the procedure for applying to be joined as a party.

Regulation 17 deals with distribution of relevant documents by a tribunal.

Regulations 18 and 19 deal with a tribunal’s powers to order the supply of information and documents, and with failure to comply with such an order.

Regulation 20 enables a tribunal to determine an application without an oral hearing. A minimum of 14 days' notice must be given to the parties of the intention to proceed in this way. The parties have a right to request an oral hearing. A single qualified member of the panel may decide that an oral hearing is appropriate.

Regulation 21 makes provision for interim orders, other than in the case of determination of an application under section 102(4) or (7) of the 2004 Act.

Regulation 22 makes procedural provision in respect of directions under a tribunal's general power in section 230(2) of the 2004 Act.

Regulation 23 deals with inspection of the premises.

Regulation 24 makes provision for adducing expert evidence to a tribunal.

Regulation 25 enables a tribunal to hold a case management conference (which is defined to include a pre-trial review) on not less than 7 days' notice to the parties.

Regulation 26 gives details of a tribunal's remaining case management powers. Regulation 26(1) (a) allows a tribunal to reduce the time specified in the Regulations for various steps in the action where all parties agree to the reduction in question. Regulation 26(1)(b) allows a tribunal to extend the time specified in the Regulations for various steps in the action.

Regulation 27 deals with giving notice appointing the date, time and place of a hearing, and regulation 28 gives a tribunal power to postpone a hearing.

Regulation 29 sets out a tribunal's powers at a hearing, and regulation 30 makes provision as to when a hearing may be held in private as an exception to the general rule that it should be held in public.

Regulation 31 sets out those who are entitled to be present at hearings held in private and at the tribunal's deliberations to determine the application.

Regulation 32 enables a tribunal to proceed with a hearing in the absence of a party who fails to appear.

Regulation 33 sets out how and when a tribunal will give its decision.

Regulation 34 provides that a tribunal must not award costs under its powers contained in paragraph 12 of Schedule 13 to the 2004 Act without giving the party concerned the opportunity to make representations.

Regulation 35 specifies how an application may be withdrawn in whole or part, and stipulates the requirements that must be satisfied in certain circumstances for withdrawal of an application to become effective.

Regulation 36 provides for a decision of a tribunal to be enforced in the county court, with the court's leave.

Regulation 37 contains provisions relating to requests to a tribunal for permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber).

Regulation 38 requires a tribunal to make appropriate arrangements where any person taking part in the proceedings requires translation, interpretation, or other assistance to enable effective participation in the proceedings.

Regulation 39 makes provision about what amounts to supply of a document or notice under the Regulations. The provision includes the circumstances in which communication by fax, electronic communication, or private delivery service, will be acceptable.

Regulation 40 provides that if the time specified by the Regulations for doing any act expires on a weekend or public holiday, the act will be in time if done on the next working day.

Regulation 41 gives a tribunal power to dismiss in whole or in part any application considered frivolous, vexatious, or otherwise an abuse of process after giving notice of at least 14 days to the applicant. It also gives the tribunal power to dismiss an application if the applicant has failed to comply with a direction issued by the tribunal subject to the tribunal first giving the applicant the opportunity to make representations in relation to the proposed dismissal.

Regulation 42 states that irregularities by parties in complying with the Regulations will not in themselves render the proceedings void.

Regulation 43 allows reproduction of a signature by computer or other mechanical means, so long as the name of the person signing is added underneath in a way which enables that person to be identified.

Part 3 of the Regulations, which makes provision for the payment of fees in respect of appeals and applications to tribunals, apply in relation to appeals and applications of any of the descriptions specified in regulations 44, 45, 46, 47 and 48.

Regulation 44 requires a fee of £155 to be paid when an application is made to a tribunal under any of the provisions of the 2004 Act listed in that regulation.

Regulation 45 requires a fee of £155 to be paid when an application is made to a tribunal under any of the provisions of the 1985 Act listed in those regulations.

Regulation 46 requires a fee to be paid when an application is made to a tribunal under any of the provisions in the 2013 Act that are listed in that regulation. The fee payable ranges from £155 to £515.

Regulations 47 and 48 require a fee of £155 to be paid when an application is made to a tribunal under any of the provisions of the 2014 Act or the 2015 Act listed in those regulations.

Regulation 49 makes further provision in respect of payment of fees.

Regulation 50 provides for the person making the application to be liable for payment of the fee and for the fee to be waived where that person or that person's partner is in receipt of any of the benefits listed in regulation 50(2).

Regulation 51 sets out the circumstances in which a tribunal may order one party to an application to reimburse any fees incurred under regulation 44, 45, 46, 47 or 48 by another party.

Regulation 52 lists the Regulations and Orders that are revoked by the Regulations.

The Schedule to the Regulations lists applications which may be made to a tribunal, and in respect of each type of application, specifies the additional documents which must be included with it, and identifies the persons who may be named as respondents to the application.

The Welsh Ministers' Code of Practice on the carrying out of Regulatory Impact Assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, it was not considered necessary to carry out a Regulatory Impact Assessment as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with the Regulations.
