| Made | - - - - | 25th July 2003 |
| Laid before Parliament | | 5th August 2003 |
| Coming into force | - - | 1st September 2003 |

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Secretary of State by sections 157(1) and 210(7) of the Education Act 2002⁽¹⁾, the Secretary of State for Education and Skills hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and application

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Education (Independent School Standards) (England) Regulations 2003 and shall come into force on 1st September 2003.
2. These Regulations shall apply only in relation to England.
3. These Regulations shall apply to any independent school, except that—
 - (a) paragraphs 1, 3(2)(d), 6(2)(f),(g),(i) and (k) and 6(7) of the Schedule shall not apply to an Academy; and
 - (b) paragraphs 1, 3(9), 6(2)(f),(g),(i) and (k), 6(5) and 6(7) of the Schedule shall not apply to a city technology college or a city college for the technology of the arts.

Interpretation

4. In these Regulations—
 - “the 1996 Act” means the Education Act 1996⁽²⁾;
 - “the 2002 Act” means the Education Act 2002;

(1) 2002 c. 32; by virtue of the definition of “regulations” in section 212(1), these Regulations made by the Secretary of State apply only in relation to England.
(2) 1996 c. 56

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

“city technology college” or “city college for the technology of the arts” means a school established under section 482 of the 1996 Act⁽³⁾ before 26th July 2002 which is not an Academy;

“fire authority” means the statutory body defined in section 4 of the Fire Services Act 1947⁽⁴⁾, in section 328 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999⁽⁵⁾ or in section 26 of the Local Government Act 1985⁽⁶⁾;

“school” means an independent school;

“staff” means those people working at the school whether under a contract of employment, under a contract for services or as a volunteer; and

“statement” means a statement of special educational needs made under section 324 of the 1996 Act.

5. The requirements set out in the Schedule are the independent school standards for the purposes of Part 10 of the 2002 Act.

25th July 2003

David Miliband
Minister of State,
Department for Education and Skills

⁽³⁾ Section 482 was substituted by section 65 of the 2002 Act.
⁽⁴⁾ 1947 c. 41
⁽⁵⁾ 1999 c. 29
⁽⁶⁾ 1985 c. 51

SCHEDULE

Regulation 5

THE INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS STANDARDS

Quality of education provided

1.—(1) The quality of education provided by the school meets the standard if the requirements in sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) are met.

(2) The school shall draw-up and implement effectively a written policy on the curriculum, supported by appropriate plans and schemes of work, which provides for—

- (a) full-time supervised education for pupils of compulsory school age, which gives pupils experience in linguistic, mathematical, scientific, technological, human and social, physical and aesthetic and creative education;
- (b) subject matter appropriate for the ages and aptitudes of pupils, including those pupils with a statement;
- (c) pupils to acquire skills in speaking and listening, literacy and numeracy skills;
- (d) where the principal language of instruction is a language other than English, lessons in written and spoken English, except that this requirement shall not apply in respect of a school which provides education for pupils who are all temporarily resident in England and which follows the curriculum of another country;
- (e) where a pupil has a statement, education which fulfils its requirements;
- (f) personal, social and health education which reflects the school's aims and ethos;
- (g) appropriate careers guidance for pupils receiving secondary education;
- (h) where the school has pupils above or below compulsory school age, a programme of activities which is appropriate to their needs;
- (i) all pupils to have the opportunity to learn and make progress; and
- (j) adequate preparation of pupils for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life.

(3) The teaching at the school shall—

- (a) enable pupils to acquire new knowledge and make progress according to their ability so that they increase their understanding and develop their skills in the subjects taught;
- (b) foster in pupils the application of intellectual, physical or creative effort, interest in their work, and the ability to think and learn for themselves;
- (c) involve well planned lessons, effective teaching methods, suitable activities and wise management of class time;
- (d) show a good understanding of the aptitudes, needs and prior attainments of the pupils, and ensure these are taken into account in the planning of lessons;
- (e) demonstrate appropriate knowledge and understanding of the subject matter being taught;
- (f) utilise effectively classroom resources of an adequate quality, quantity and range;
- (g) demonstrate that a framework is in place to assess pupils' work regularly and thoroughly and use information from that assessment to plan teaching so that pupils can progress; and
- (h) encourage pupils to behave responsibly.

(4) The school shall have in place a framework for pupil performance to be evaluated, by reference either to the school's own aims as provided to parents or national norms, or to both.

(5) The school shall provide an education which enables all pupils within a class to make progress, including pupils with statements and those for whom English is an additional language.

Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils

2. The spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils at the school meets the standard if the school promotes principles which—

- (a) enable pupils to develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence;
- (b) enable pupils to distinguish right from wrong and to respect the law;
- (c) encourage pupils to accept responsibility for their behaviour, show initiative and understand how they can contribute to community life;
- (d) provide pupils with a broad general knowledge of public institutions and services in England; and
- (e) assist pupils to acquire an appreciation of and respect for their own and other cultures in a way that promotes tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions.

Welfare, health and safety of pupils

3.—(1) The welfare, health and safety of pupils at the school meets the standard if the requirements in sub-paragraphs (2) to (9) are met.

(2) The school shall draw up and implement effectively a written policy to—

- (a) prevent bullying, which has regard to DfES Guidance “Bullying: don't suffer in silence”(7);
- (b) safeguard and promote the welfare of children who are pupils at the school, which complies with DfES Circular 10/95 “Protecting Children from Abuse: the Role of the Education Service”;
- (c) safeguard and promote the health and safety of pupils on activities outside the school, which has regard to DfES Guidance “Health and Safety of Pupils on Educational Visits(8)”;
- (d) promote good behaviour amongst pupils and set out the sanctions to be adopted in the event of pupil misbehaviour.

(3) Where a school provides accommodation, it shall have regard to the National Minimum Standards for Boarding Schools(9) or where applicable the National Minimum Standards for Residential Special Schools(10).

(4) The school shall have regard to the DfES guidance “Health and Safety: Responsibilities and Powers”(11).

(5) The school shall have a satisfactory level of fire safety, identified by—

- (a) the school's risk assessment under regulation 3 of the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999(12) insofar as it relates to obligations under Part II of the Fire Precautions (Workplace) Regulations 1997(13); and
- (b) any report from the fire authority.

(6) The school shall have and implement a satisfactory policy on First Aid.

(7) School staff shall be deployed to ensure the proper supervision of pupils.

 - (k) the number of staff at the school, including temporary staff, and a summary of their qualifications.
- (3) Following an inspection under section 163(1) of the 2002 Act, the school shall send to the parents of every registered pupil, by a date to be specified by the body who conducted the inspection—
- (a) a summary report; or
 - (b) if no summary has been prepared, a copy of the full report.
- (4) Where a summary report has been sent in accordance with sub-paragraph (3)(a), the school shall make arrangements for parents to have access to the full report on request.
- (5) Unless otherwise agreed with any parent, the school shall send to the parents of each registered pupil an annual written report of his progress and of his attainment in the main subject areas taught.
- (6) The school shall provide any body conducting an inspection under section 163(1) of the 2002 Act with—
- (a) any information reasonably requested in connection with it that is necessary for the purposes of the inspection; and
 - (b) access to the school's admission and attendance registers.
- (7) Where a pupil wholly or partly funded by a local authority is registered at the school, an annual account of income received and expenditure incurred by the school in respect of that pupil shall be submitted to the local authority and on request to the Secretary of State.
- (8) Where a pupil with a statement is registered at the school, the school shall supply such information to the responsible local education authority as may reasonably be required for the purpose of the annual review of the statement.
- (9) A copy of the risk assessment referred to in paragraph 3(5)(a) shall be provided on request to the Secretary of State.
- (10) In relation to paragraphs (g) to (k) of sub-paragraph (2), provided that the school ensures that parents of pupils and of prospective pupils are aware that such information is available, it need only be provided to them on request.

Manner in which complaints are to be handled

7. The manner in which a school handles complaints meets the standard if it has a complaints procedure which—

- (a) is in writing;
- (b) is available on request to parents of pupils and of prospective pupils at the school;
- (c) sets out clear time scales for the management of a complaint;
- (d) allows for a complaint to be made and considered initially on an informal basis;
- (e) where the parents are not satisfied with the response to the complaint made in accordance with paragraph (d), establishes a procedure for the complaint to be made in writing;
- (f) where the parents are not satisfied with the response to the complaint made in accordance with paragraph (e), makes provision for a hearing before a panel appointed by or on behalf of the proprietor and consisting of at least three people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint;

- (g) ensures that, where there is a panel hearing of a complaint, one person will be independent of the management and running of the school;
- (h) allows for parents to attend and be accompanied at a panel hearing if they wish;
- (i) provides for the panel to make findings and recommendations and stipulates that the complainant, proprietor and head teacher, and where relevant the person complained about, are given a copy of any findings and recommendations;
- (j) provides for a written record to be kept of all complaints, and of whether they are resolved at the preliminary stage or proceed to a panel hearing;
- (k) provides that correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints are to be kept confidential except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection under section 163 of the 2002 Act requests access to them; and
- (l) where the school provides accommodation, complies with Standard 5 of the National Minimum Standards for Boarding Schools or where applicable Standards 4 and 5 of the National Minimum Standards for Residential Special Schools.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the Independent School Standards (“the standards”) to which independent schools will be inspected under Part 10 of the Education Act 2002.

A person conducting such an inspection will make a report on the extent to which the standards are met, which the registration authority will consider along with any other evidence in determining whether to register a new school or to take enforcement action against an existing one.

The Schedule sets out the detail of the standards.

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business is available from the Independent Schools Registration Team, Department for Education and Skills, Ground Floor, Mowden Hall, Staindrop Road, Darlington DL3 9BG and accessible on the Department’s internet website at www.dfes.gov.uk/ria/. Copies have also been placed in the Library of each House of Parliament.
