In that provision, “the Treaty” means the Treaty establishing the European Community.

(3) In these Regulations, subject to paragraph (4), a “linked travel arrangement” means at least two different types of travel service purchased for the purpose of the same trip or holiday, not constituting a package, resulting in the conclusion of separate contracts with the individual service providers, if a trader facilitates —

- (a) on the occasion of a single visit to, or contact with, a trader’s point of sale, the separate selection and separate payment of each travel service by travellers; or
- (b) in a targeted manner, the procurement of at least one additional travel service from another trader where a contract with such other trader is concluded at the latest 24 hours after the confirmation of the booking of the first travel service.

- (b) one or more tourist services of the kind listed in paragraph (d) of that definition, are purchased, those services do not constitute a linked travel arrangement if the tourist services referred to in sub-paragraph (b) do not account for a significant proportion of the combined value of the services and are not advertised as, and do not otherwise represent, an essential feature of the trip or holiday.

(5) In these Regulations, subject to paragraph (6), a “package” means a combination of at least two different types of travel services for the purpose of the same trip or holiday, if—

- (a) those services are combined by one trader, including at the request of, or in accordance with, the selection of the traveller, before a single contract on all services is concluded; or
  - (b) those services are—
    - (i) purchased from a single point of sale and selected before the traveller agrees to pay,
    - (ii) offered, sold or charged at an inclusive or total price,
    - (iii) advertised or sold under the term “package” or under a similar term,
    - (iv) combined after the conclusion of a contract by which a trader entitles the traveller to choose among a selection of different types of travel services, or
    - (v) purchased from separate traders through linked online booking processes where—
      - (aa) the traveller’s name, payment details and e-mail address are transmitted from the trader with whom the first contract is concluded to another trader or traders, and
      - (bb) a contract with the latter trader or traders is concluded at the latest 24 hours after the confirmation of the booking of the first travel service,
- irrespective of whether the traveller concludes separate contracts with one or more travel service providers in respect of the services.

(6) A combination of travel services where not more than one type of travel service of the kind listed in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of the definition of “travel service” is combined with one or more tourist services of the kind listed in paragraph (d) of that definition is not a package if the latter services—

- (a) do not account for a significant proportion of the value of the combination and are not advertised as, and do not otherwise represent, an essential feature of the combination; or
- (b) are selected and purchased after the performance of a travel service of the kind listed in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of the definition of “travel service” has started.

(3) In paragraph (2)(c), a “general agreement” means an agreement which is concluded between a trader and another person acting for a trade, business, craft or profession, for the purpose of booking travel arrangements in connection with that trade, business, craft or profession.

(6) Where the traveller terminates the contract pursuant to paragraph (5)(b), the traveller may accept a substitute package, where this is offered by the organiser.

(7) Where—

- (a) the changes to the package travel contract referred to in paragraph (3), or

(b) the substitute package referred to in paragraph (6),

(8) Where—

- (a) the traveller terminates the contract pursuant to paragraph (5)(b), and
- (b) the traveller does not accept a substitute package, the organiser must refund all payments made by or on behalf of the traveller without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days after the contract is terminated.

- (b) terminate the contract, in accordance with that paragraph, the organiser must notify the traveller, a second time, of the matters in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of paragraph (4).

(11) If, having been notified under paragraph (10), the traveller fails to respond, the organiser may terminate the contract and refund all payments made by or on behalf of the traveller without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days after the contract is terminated.

(3) Where the traveller terminates the package travel contract under paragraph (2), the traveller may be required to pay an appropriate and justifiable termination fee to the organiser.

(4) The package travel contract may specify reasonable standard termination fees based on—

- (a) the time of the termination of the contract before the start of the package; and
- (b) the expected cost savings and income from alternative deployment of the travel services.

(5) In the absence of standardised termination fees, the amount of the termination fee must correspond to the price of the package minus the cost savings and income from alternative deployment of the travel services.

(6) The organiser must provide a justification for the amount of the termination fee if the traveller so requests.

(7) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) to (6), in the event of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances occurring at the place of destination or its immediate vicinity and which significantly affect—

- (a) the performance of the package, or
- (b) the carriage of passengers to the destination, the traveller may terminate the package travel contract before the start of the package without paying any termination fee.

(8) Where the package travel contract is terminated under paragraph (7), the traveller is entitled to a full refund of any payments made for the package but is not entitled to additional compensation.

Termination of the package travel contract by the organiser

13.—(1) The provisions of this regulation are implied as a term in every package travel contract.

(2) Paragraph (3) applies where—

(a) the number of persons enrolled for the package is smaller than the minimum number stated in the contract and the organiser notifies the traveller of the termination of the contract within the period fixed in the contract but not later than—

(3) The traveller must inform the organiser without undue delay, taking into account the circumstances of the case, of any lack of conformity which the traveller perceives during the performance of a travel service included in the package travel contract.

(4) If any of the travel services are not performed in accordance with the package travel contract, the organiser must remedy the lack of conformity within a reasonable period set by the traveller unless that—

- (a) is impossible; or

(5) Where the organiser does not remedy the lack of conformity within a reasonable period set by the traveller for a reason mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph (4), regulation 16 applies.

(6) Where the organiser refuses to remedy the lack of conformity or where immediate remedy is required, the traveller—

- (a) may remedy the lack of conformity; and
- (b) is entitled to reimbursement of the necessary expenses.

(7) A traveller to whom paragraph (6)(a) applies is not required to—

- (a) set a reasonable period pursuant to paragraph (4), and
- (b) if such a period has been set, wait until the end of the period, before the traveller remedies the lack of conformity.

(8) Where the organiser is unable to provide a significant proportion of the travel services as agreed in the package travel contract, the organiser must offer, at no extra cost to the traveller, suitable alternative arrangements of, where possible, equivalent or higher quality than those specified in the contract, for the continuation of the package, including where the traveller's return to the place of departure is agreed.

(9) Where the organiser offers proposed alternative arrangements which result in a package of lower quality than that specified in the package travel contract, the organiser must grant the traveller an appropriate price reduction.

(10) The traveller may reject the proposed alternative arrangements offered under paragraph (8) only if—

- (a) they are not comparable to the arrangements which were agreed in the package travel contract; or
- (b) the price reduction granted is inadequate.

(11) Where—

- (a) a lack of conformity substantially affects the performance of the package; and
- (b) the organiser fails to remedy the lack of conformity within the reasonable period, the traveller may terminate the package travel contract without paying a termination fee and, where appropriate, is entitled to a price reduction, or compensation for damages, or both, in accordance with regulation 16.

(12) If—

- (a) the organiser is unable to make alternative arrangements, or
- (b) the traveller rejects the proposed alternative arrangements in accordance with paragraph (10), the traveller is, where appropriate, entitled to a price reduction, or compensation for damages, or both, in accordance with regulation 16 without terminating the package travel contract.

(13) If the package includes the carriage of passengers, the organiser must, in the cases referred to in paragraphs (11) and (12), also provide repatriation of the traveller with equivalent transport without undue delay and at no extra cost to the traveller.

(14) Where the organiser is unable to ensure the traveller's return as agreed in the package travel contract because of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances, the organiser must bear the cost of necessary accommodation, if possible of equivalent category—

- (a) for a period not exceeding 3 nights per traveller; or
- (b) where a different period is specified in the Union passenger rights legislation applicable to the relevant means of transport for the traveller's return, for the period specified in that legislation.

(15) The limitation of costs referred to in paragraph (14) does not apply to persons with reduced mobility as defined in point (a) of Article 2 of Regulation (EC) No 1107/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council, concerning the rights of disabled persons and persons with reduced mobility when travelling by air<sup>(16)</sup> and any person accompanying them, pregnant women and unaccompanied minors, as well as persons in need of specific medical assistance, provided that the organiser has been notified of their particular needs at least 48 hours before the start of the package.

(16) The organiser's liability under paragraph (14) may not be limited by reason of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances if the relevant transport provider may not rely on such circumstances under the applicable Union passenger rights legislation.

Price reduction and compensation for damages

16.—(1) The provisions of this regulation are implied as a term in every package travel contract.

(2) The organiser must offer the traveller an appropriate price reduction for any period during which there is a lack of conformity, unless the organiser proves that the lack of conformity is attributable to the traveller.

(3) The organiser must offer the traveller, without undue delay, appropriate compensation for any damage which the traveller sustains as a result of any lack of conformity.

(4) The traveller is not entitled to compensation for damages under paragraph (3) if the organiser proves that the lack of conformity is—

- (a) attributable to the traveller;
- (b) attributable to a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel services included in the package travel contract and is unforeseeable or unavoidable; or
- (c) due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances.

(5) In so far as the international conventions limit the extent of, or the conditions under which, compensation is to be paid by a provider carrying out a travel service which is part of a package, the same limitations are to apply to the organiser.

(6) In other cases, the package travel contract may limit compensation to be paid by the organiser as long as that limitation—

- (a) does not apply to personal injury or damage caused intentionally or with negligence or does not limit any liability that cannot be limited by law; and
- (b) does not amount to less than 3 times the total price of the package.

(7) Any right to compensation or price reduction under these Regulations does not affect the rights of travellers under—

- (a) the Union passenger rights legislation; and
- (b) the international conventions.

(16) OJ No L 2004, 26.7.2006, p. 1. Point (a) of Article 2 provides that 'person with reduced mobility' means "any person whose mobility when using transport is reduced due to any physical disability (sensory or locomotor, permanent or temporary), intellectual disability or impairment, or any other cause of disability, or age, and whose situation needs appropriate attention and the adaptation to his or her particular needs of the service made available to all passengers".

- (8) Travellers may present claims under—
- (a) these Regulations;
  - (b) the Union passenger rights legislation; and
  - (c) the international conventions.
- (9) Where a traveller is granted compensation or a price reduction under—
- (a) these Regulations, and
  - (b) the Union passenger rights legislation or the international conventions,
- the organiser must deduct the compensation or price reductions referred to in sub-paragraph (b) from the compensation or price reduction referred to in sub-paragraph (a) to avoid overcompensation.
- (10) In this regulation, the “international conventions” means—
- (a) the Carriage by Air Conventions, within the meaning given in section 1(5) of the Carriage by Air Act 1961<sup>(17)</sup>;
  - (b) the Athens Convention of 1974 on the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea<sup>(18)</sup>;
  - (c) the Convention of 1980 concerning International Carriage by Rail (COTIF)<sup>(19)</sup>.

Possibility of contacting the organiser via the retailer

- 17.—(1) The provisions of this regulation are implied as a term in every package travel contract.
- (2) The traveller may address messages, requests or complaints in relation to the performance of the package directly to the retailer through which it was purchased.
- (3) The retailer must forward those messages, requests or complaints to the organiser without undue delay.
- (4) For the purpose of compliance with time-limits or limitation periods, receipt of the messages, requests or complaints referred to in this regulation by the retailer are to be considered as receipt by the organiser.

Obligation to provide assistance

- 18.—(1) The provisions of this regulation are implied as a term in every package travel contract.
- (2) Where a traveller is in difficulty, the organiser must give appropriate assistance without undue delay, including in the circumstances referred to in regulation 15(14), in particular by—
- (a) providing appropriate information on health services, local authorities and consular assistance; and
  - (b) assisting the traveller to make distance communications and helping the traveller to find alternative travel arrangements.
- (3) The organiser may charge a fee for such assistance if the difficulty is caused intentionally by the traveller or through the traveller’s negligence but that fee—
- (a) must be reasonable; and

(17) 1961 c. 27. Section 1 was substituted by S.I. 2002/263.

(18) Council Decision 2012/22/EU of 12 December 2011 concerning the accession of the European Union to the Protocol of 2002 to the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, 1974, with the exception of Articles 10 and 11 thereof (OJ L8, 12.1.2012, p. 1).

(19) Council Decision 2013/103/EU of 16 June 2011 on the signing and conclusion of the Agreement between the European Union and the Intergovernmental Organisation for International Carriage by Rail on the Accession of the European Union to the Convention concerning International Carriage by Rail (COTIF) of 9 May 1980, as amended by the Vilnius Protocol of 3 June 1999 (OJ L 51, 23.2.2013, p. 1).

- (b) must not exceed the actual costs incurred by the organiser.

PART 5

Insolvency protection for packages

19.—(1) The organiser of a package who is established in the United Kingdom must provide effective security to cover, in the event of the organiser's insolvency, the reasonably foreseeable costs of—

- (a) refunding all payments made by or on behalf of travellers for any travel service not performed as a consequence of the insolvency, taking into account the length of the period between down payments and final payments and the completion of the packages; and
  - (b) if the carriage of passengers is included in the packages, and the performance of any package is affected by the insolvency, repatriating the traveller and, if necessary, financing the traveller's accommodation prior to the repatriation.
- (2) The organiser must provide the security under paragraph (1) to benefit travellers—
- (a) regardless of their place of residence, their place of departure or where the package is sold;
  - (b) irrespective of the member State where the entity in charge of the insolvency protection is located.
- (3) The organiser must provide the security—
- (a) under paragraph (1)(a), without undue delay after the traveller's request;
  - (b) under paragraph (1)(b), free of charge.
- (4) The organiser of a package who—
- (a) is not established in the United Kingdom or in any other member State, and
  - (b) sells or offers for sale a package in the United Kingdom, or by any means directs such activities to the United Kingdom, must provide security in accordance with this Part.

(5) Without prejudice to paragraphs (1) to (4), and subject to paragraphs (6) to (8), the organiser must at least ensure that arrangements as described in—

- (a) regulation 20,
- (b) regulation 21,
- (c) regulation 22, or
- (d) regulations 23 and 24,

are in force.

(6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to a package to the extent that—

- (a) the package is covered by measures adopted or retained by the member State where the organiser is established for the purpose of Article 17 of the Directive; or
- (b) the package is one—
  - (i) in respect of which the organiser is required to hold a licence under the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012<sup>(20)</sup>; or

(ii) that is covered by the arrangements the organiser has entered into for the purposes of those Regulations.

(7) For the purposes of regulations 20 to 24, a contract is to be treated as having been fully performed if the package or, as the case may be, the part of the package, has been completed.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (7), a package is to be deemed to have been completed whether or not there has been a lack of conformity.

(9) An organiser who fails to comply with any provision of paragraphs (1) to (5) commits an offence and is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine in England and Wales, or in Scotland and Northern Ireland to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

(10) In the event of the organiser's insolvency, travellers may agree to continue the package where—

- (a) it is possible to do so; and
- (b) a person, other than that organiser, agrees to carry out the responsibilities of the organiser under the package travel contract.

(11) The Civil Aviation Authority is designated as a central contact point for the purposes of Article 18(2) and (3) of the Directive and may perform the duties imposed on central contact points by that Article.

Bonding

20.—(1) Where an organiser, for the purpose of regulation 19(5), relies on the arrangements under this regulation, the organiser must ensure that a bond is entered into by an authorised institution under which the institution, in the event of the insolvency of the organiser, binds itself to pay to an approved body of which that organiser is a member—

- (a) a sum calculated in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (4); or
- (b) a sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (5), if the carriage of passengers is included in the packages and the performance of the packages is affected by the insolvency.

(2) Any bond entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) must not be in force for a period exceeding 18 months.

(3) The sum referred to in paragraph (1)(a) must be such sum as may reasonably be expected to enable all monies paid by or on behalf of travellers under or in contemplation of package travel contracts which have not been fully performed to be repaid and must not in any event be a sum which is less than the minimum sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (4).

(4) The minimum sum for the purposes of paragraph (3) must be a sum which represents—

- (a) not less than 25% of all the payments which the organiser estimates that the organiser will receive under or in contemplation of package travel contracts in the 12-month period from the date of entry into force of the bond referred to in paragraph (1), or
- (b) the maximum amount of all the payments which the organiser expects to hold at any one time, in respect of contracts which have not been fully performed, whichever sum is the smaller.

(5) The sum referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must be no less than—

- (a) the minimum sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (4); and

- (b) such additional sum as the organiser may reasonably expect to be required to cover the reasonably foreseeable costs of repatriating the travellers and, if necessary, financing the travellers' accommodation prior to the repatriation.
- (6) Before a bond is entered into pursuant to paragraph (1)—
  - (a) the organiser must inform the approved body of which the organiser is a member of the minimum sum which the organiser proposes for the purposes of paragraph (3) or, where relevant, paragraph (5);
  - (b) the approved body must consider whether such sum is sufficient for those purposes; and
  - (c) if the approved body does not consider that the sum is sufficient for those purposes, the approved body must—
    - (i) inform the organiser that this is the case, and
    - (ii) state the sum which, in the opinion of the approved body, is sufficient for those purposes.
- (7) Where an approved body states a sum pursuant to paragraph (6)(c)(ii), the minimum sum for the purposes of paragraph (3) or, where relevant, paragraph (5), is to be that sum.
- (8) In this regulation—
  - “approved body” means a body which is for the time being approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this regulation;
  - “authorised institution” means a person authorised under the law of the United Kingdom or of a member State, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man to carry on the business of entering into bonds of the kind required by this regulation.

Bonding where approved body has reserve fund or insurance

- 21.—(1) Where an organiser, for the purpose of regulation 19(5), relies on the arrangements under this regulation, the organiser must ensure that a bond is entered into by an authorised institution, under which the institution, in the event of the organiser's insolvency, agrees to pay to an approved body of which the organiser is a member a sum calculated in accordance with —
- (a) paragraphs (3) and (4);
  - (b) paragraph (5), if the carriage of passengers is included in the packages and the performance of the packages is affected by the insolvency.
- (2) Any bond entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) must not be in force for a period exceeding 18 months.
- (3) The sum referred to in paragraph (1)(a) must be such sum as may be specified by the approved body as representing the lesser of—
- (a) the maximum amount of all the payments which the organiser expects to hold at any one time in respect of contracts which have not been fully performed; or
  - (b) the minimum sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (4).
- (4) The minimum sum for the purposes of paragraph (3) must be a sum which represents not less than 10% of all the payments which the organiser estimates that the organiser will receive under or in contemplation of package travel contracts in the 12-month period from the date of entry into force of the bond referred to in paragraph (1).
- (5) The sum referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must be no less than—
- (a) the minimum sum calculated in accordance with paragraph (4); and

- (b) such additional sum as may be specified by the approved body as representing the amount required to cover the costs of repatriating the travellers and, if necessary, financing the travellers' accommodation prior to the repatriation.
- (6) In this regulation, "approved body" means a body which is for the time being approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this regulation and no such approval is to be given unless the conditions mentioned in paragraph (7) are satisfied in relation to it.
- (7) A body may not be approved for the purposes of this regulation unless—
  - (a) it has a reserve fund or insurance cover with an insurer authorised in respect of such business in the United Kingdom, a member State, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man of an amount in each case which is designed to enable—
    - (i) in the event of the insolvency of the member, the refund of all payments made by or on behalf of travellers for any travel service not fully performed as a consequence of the insolvency; and
    - (ii) the costs of repatriating the travellers and, if necessary, financing the travellers' accommodation prior to the repatriation to be covered, where the carriage of passengers is included in the packages and the performance of the packages is affected by the insolvency; and
  - (b) where it has a reserve fund, it agrees that the fund will be held by persons and in a manner approved by the Secretary of State.
- (8) In this regulation, "authorised institution" has the meaning given in regulation 20(8).

Insurance

22.—(1) Where an organiser, for the purpose of regulation 19(5), relies on the arrangements under this regulation, the organiser must have insurance under one or more appropriate policies with an insurer authorised in respect of such business in the United Kingdom, a member State, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, under which the insurer agrees to indemnify travellers in the event of the insolvency of the organiser.

(2) The organiser must ensure that travellers are insured persons under the policy required under paragraph (1) in respect of the costs referred to in paragraph (4)(b).

(3) The organiser must ensure that it is a term of every package travel contract that the traveller acquires the benefit of a policy of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1) in the event of the organiser's insolvency.

- (4) In this regulation, "appropriate policy" means one which—
  - (a) does not contain a condition which provides (in whatever terms) that no liability arises under the policy, or that any liability so arising ceases—
    - (i) in the event of some specified thing being done or omitted to be done after the happening of the event giving rise to a claim under the policy;
    - (ii) in the event of the policy holder not making payments under or in connection with other policies; or
    - (iii) unless the policy holder keeps specified records or makes available to, or provides the insurer with, information from those records; and
  - (b) covers the costs of—
    - (i) refunding all payments made by or on behalf of travellers for any travel service not fully performed as a consequence of the insolvency, taking into account the length of the period between down payments and final payments and the completion of the packages; and

- (ii) if the carriage of passengers is included in the package, and the performance of the package is affected by the insolvency, repatriating the traveller and, if necessary, financing the traveller's accommodation prior to the repatriation.

Monies in trust

23.—(1) Where an organiser, for the purpose of regulation 19(5), relies on the arrangements under this regulation, the organiser must ensure that—

(a) all monies, or

(b) where regulation 24(3) applies, a lesser sum in accordance with that regulation, paid by or on behalf of a traveller under or in contemplation of a package travel contract are held in the United Kingdom or a member State by a person as trustee for the traveller.

(2) The monies are to be held under paragraph (1) until—

(a) the contract has been fully performed; or

(b) any sum of money paid by or on behalf of the traveller in respect of the contract—

(i) has been repaid to the traveller; or

(ii) has been forfeited on cancellation by the traveller.

(3) The person appointed as trustee for the purposes of paragraph (1) must be independent of the organiser.

(4) The costs of administering the trust mentioned in paragraph (1) must be paid for by the organiser.

(5) Any interest which is earned on the monies held by the trustee pursuant to paragraph (1) must be held for the organiser and must be payable to the organiser on demand.

(6) Where there is produced to the trustee a statement signed by the organiser to the effect that—

(a) a package travel contract, the price of which is specified in that statement, has been fully performed,

(b) the organiser has repaid to the traveller a sum of money specified in that statement which the traveller had paid in respect of a package travel contract, or

(c) the traveller has on cancellation forfeited a sum of money specified in that statement which the traveller had paid in respect of a package travel contract, the trustee must release to the organiser the sum specified in the statement.

(7) Where the trustee considers it appropriate to do so, the trustee may require the organiser to provide further information or evidence of the matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of paragraph (6) before the trustee releases any sum to the organiser pursuant to that paragraph.

(8) In the event of the organiser's insolvency, the monies held in trust by the trustee pursuant to paragraph (1) of this regulation must be applied to meet the claims of travellers who are creditors of that organiser in respect of package travel contracts in respect of which the trust mentioned in paragraph (1) has been established and which have not been fully performed.

(9) If there is a surplus after those claims have been met, it is to form part of the estate of the organiser for the purposes of insolvency law.

Insurance where monies are held in trust

24.—(1) This regulation applies to any organiser who, for the purpose of regulation 19(5), makes arrangements under regulation 23.

(2) Where the organiser offers packages which include the carriage of passengers, the organiser must have insurance under one or more appropriate policies with an insurer authorised in respect of such business in accordance with regulation 22(1), under which, in the event of the insolvency of the organiser, the insurer agrees to cover the costs of—

- (a) repatriating the traveller who has purchased a relevant package; and
- (b) if necessary, financing the traveller’s accommodation prior to the repatriation.

(3) Where paragraph (4) applies, an organiser—

- (a) is not required, under regulation 23(1)(a), to ensure that all monies paid by a traveller under or in contemplation of a package travel contract are held in accordance with regulation 23; and
- (b) may, instead, ensure that a part of those monies only (the “lesser sum”) is held in accordance with regulation 23, as the case may be.

(4) This paragraph applies if the organiser has insurance under one or more appropriate policies with an insurer authorised in respect of such business in accordance with regulation 22(1), under which, in the event of the insolvency of the organiser, the insurer agrees to cover the relevant amount.

(5) Where paragraph (2) or (4) applies, the organiser must ensure that it is a term of the relevant package travel contract that the traveller acquires the benefit of a policy of a kind mentioned in paragraph (2) or (3) in the event of the organiser’s insolvency.

(6) In this regulation, an “appropriate policy” means one which does not contain a condition which provides (in whatever terms) that no liability arises under the policy, or that any liability so arising ceases—

- (a) in the event of some specified thing being done or omitted to be done after the happening of the event giving rise to a claim under the policy;
- (b) in the event of the policy holder not making payments under or in connection with other policies; or
- (c) unless the policy holder keeps specified records or provides the insurer with, or makes available to, the insurer information from those records.

(7) In paragraph (4), “the relevant amount” means such amount in excess of the lesser sum, as may be required to cover the costs of refunding the traveller for any travel service not fully performed as a consequence of the insolvency, taking into account the length of the period between down payments and final payments and the completion of the package.

Offences arising from breach of regulation 23

25. If the organiser makes a false statement under regulation 23(6), the organiser commits an offence and is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine in England and Wales, or in Scotland and Northern Ireland to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

Insolvency protection and information requirements for linked travel arrangements

26.—(1) Any trader who facilitates a linked travel arrangement and is established in the United Kingdom must provide effective security to cover, in the event of the trader’s insolvency, the reasonably foreseeable costs of—

- (a) refunding all payments the trader receives from travellers for any travel service which is part of the linked arrangement and is not performed as a consequence of the trader’s insolvency, taking into account the length of the period between down payments and final payments and the completion of the linked travel arrangements; and

- (b) if the trader is the party responsible for the carriage of passengers, and the performance of the linked travel arrangement is affected by the insolvency, the traveller's repatriation and, if necessary, financing the traveller's accommodation prior to the repatriation.

(2) The trader must provide the security under paragraph (1) to benefit travellers—

- (a) regardless of their place of residence, their place of departure or where the linked travel arrangement is sold; and
- (b) irrespective of the member State where the entity in charge of the insolvency protection is located.

(3) The trader must provide the security—

- (a) under paragraph (1)(a), without undue delay; and
- (b) under paragraph (1)(b), free of charge.

(4) Any trader who—

- (a) is not established in the United Kingdom or in any other member State, and
- (b) sells or offers for sale a linked travel arrangement in the United Kingdom, or by any means directs such activities to the United Kingdom, must provide security in accordance with this regulation in respect of those arrangements.

(5) Without prejudice to paragraphs (1) to (4) and subject to paragraph (6), the trader must at least ensure that arrangements as described in—

- (a) regulation 20,
- (b) regulation 21,
- (c) regulation 22, or
- (d) regulations 23 and 24,

are in force and, for that purpose, a reference in those regulations to “organiser” is to be read as a reference to “trader”, a reference to “package” or “package travel contract” is to be read as a reference to “linked travel arrangement” and a reference to regulation 19(5) is to be read as a reference to this paragraph.

(6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to a linked travel arrangement to the extent that the linked travel arrangement—

- (a) is one which is covered by measures adopted or retained by the member State where the trader is established for the purpose of Article 17 of the Directive; or
- (b) includes a travel service —
  - (i) in respect of which the trader is required to hold a licence under the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012; or
  - (ii) which is covered by the arrangements the trader has entered into for the purposes of those Regulations.

(7) Before the traveller is bound by any contract leading to the creation of a linked travel arrangement, the trader facilitating linked travel arrangements, including where the trader is not established in a member State but, by any means directs such activities to a member State, must—

- (a) state in a clear, comprehensible and prominent manner that the traveller—
  - (i) will not benefit from any of the rights applying exclusively to packages under these Regulations and that each service provider will be solely responsible for the proper contractual performance of the service;

- (ii) will benefit from insolvency protection in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (5); and
  - (b) provide the traveller with a copy of these Regulations.
- (8) In order to comply with paragraph (7), the trader facilitating a linked travel arrangement must provide the traveller with the information referred to in that paragraph—
- (a) using the form and wording set out in Schedule 6, where the trader facilitates an online linked travel arrangement within the meaning of regulation 2(3)(a) and the trader is a carrier selling a return ticket;
  - (b) using the form and wording set out in Schedule 7, where the trader facilitates an online linked travel arrangement within the meaning of regulation 2(3)(a) and the trader is not a carrier selling a return ticket;
  - (c) using the form and wording set out in Schedule 8, where the linked travel arrangement is an arrangement within the meaning of regulation 2(3)(a) and the contract is concluded in the simultaneous physical presence of the trader (other than a carrier selling a return ticket) and the traveller;
  - (d) using the form and wording set out in Schedule 9, where the trader facilitates an online linked travel arrangement within the meaning of regulation 2(3)(b) and the trader is a carrier selling a return ticket; and
  - (e) using the form and wording set out in Schedule 10, where the trader facilitates an online linked travel arrangement within the meaning of regulation 2(3)(b) and the trader not a carrier selling a return ticket.
- (9) Where a linked travel arrangement is not an arrangement of the kind described in subparagraphs (a) to (e) of paragraph (8), the trader must provide the information referred to in paragraph (7)—
- (a) in any form set out in Schedule 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 which the trader considers is most appropriate for the purposes of providing the information, taking into account the particular circumstances of the linked travel arrangement being facilitated; and
  - (b) if necessary, making such amendments to that form as are reasonably required to provide the information clearly.
- (10) A trader who fails to comply with any provision of paragraphs (1) to (9) commits an offence and is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine in England and Wales, or in Scotland and Northern Ireland to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
  - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

- (12) Where a linked travel arrangement is the result of the conclusion of a contract between a traveller and a trader who does not facilitate the linked travel arrangement, that trader must inform the trader facilitating the linked travel arrangement of the conclusion of the relevant contract.

(2) Where in any proceedings against any person for such an offence the defence provided by paragraph (1) involves an allegation that the commission of the offence was due to—

- (a) the act or default of another; or
- (b) reliance on information given by another, that person is not, without the leave of the court, entitled to rely on the defence unless, at least 7 clear days before the hearing of the proceedings, or, in Scotland, the trial diet, the person has served a notice under paragraph (3) on the person bringing the proceedings.

(3) A notice under this paragraph must give such information identifying or assisting in the identification of the person who committed the act or default or gave the information as is in the possession of the person serving the notice at the time the person serves it.

(4) A person is not entitled to rely on the defence provided by paragraph (1) by reason of the person’s reliance on information supplied by another, unless the person shows that it was reasonable in all the circumstances for the person to have relied on the information, having regard in particular to—

(2) Where a body corporate commits an offence under any of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (1) (including where it is so committed by virtue of that paragraph) in respect of any act or default which is shown to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, both that person and the body corporate commit that offence and are liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, paragraph (2) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with that member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

PART 1

General

If, after selecting and paying for one travel service, you book additional travel services for your trip or holiday via our company/XY, you will NOT benefit from rights applying to packages under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018.

Therefore, our company/XY will not be responsible for the proper performance of those additional travel services. In case of problems please contact the relevant service provider.

However, if you book any additional travel services during the same visit to our company's/XY's booking website, the travel services will become part of a linked travel arrangement. In that case XY has, as required by the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018, protection in place to refund your payments to XY for services not fully performed because of XY's insolvency, and, where necessary, for your repatriation. Please note that this does not provide a refund in the event of the insolvency of the relevant service provider.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations implement Directive 2015/2302/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Regulation (EC) No. 2006/2004 and Directive 2011/83/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council and repealing Council Directive 90/314/EEC.

These Regulations make provision in respect of package travel contracts and linked travel arrangements sold, or offered for sale, in the United Kingdom. The principal provisions of these Regulations are as follows.

Part 2 of these Regulations specifies the information which the organiser of a package travel contract must provide to a traveller before the contract is concluded and how that information is to be provided. Part 2 also makes provision for the contents of the package travel contract. Where the package travel contract is sold through a retailer, the organiser and the retailer must both ensure that this information is provided. An organiser or a retailer who fails to comply with these provisions commits an offence.

Part 3 of these Regulations makes provision for the circumstances in which the traveller may transfer the package travel contract to another traveller or may terminate the contract. It also describes the exceptional circumstances in which the price, or other contract terms, may be altered and the limited scenarios where the organiser may terminate the contract.

Part 4 prescribes how the contract is to be performed and sets out when and how compensation may be offered to the traveller in cases where there is a lack of conformity in the performance of the contract.

Part 5 makes provision in respect of the possible insolvency of the organiser. The organiser must ensure that effective security is in place by way of insurance, bonding or monies in trust. In the event of the organiser's insolvency, such security must be able to cover the reasonably foreseeable costs of refunding all payments made by the traveller and, if the carriage of passengers is included in the package, of repatriating the traveller if necessary. Part 5 also requires traders who facilitate linked travel arrangements to ensure that travellers benefit from insolvency protection covering the refund of payments received from the travellers and, if that trader is responsible for the carriage of passengers, the cost of repatriation. The relevant trader must inform the traveller about that protection, and must also inform the traveller that the traveller will not benefit from other rights applying under these Regulations to package travel contracts.

Part 6 of these Regulations makes general provision about the obligations of a retailer, where the organiser is established outside the European Economic Area. This Part also sets out the liability of the trader in respect of booking errors and the right of an organiser to seek redress from a third party.

Part 7 deals with enforcement, prescribing the enforcement authorities and setting out a due diligence offence and a prosecution time limit.

Part 8 revokes the Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 (S.I. 1992/3288), except in respect of contracts entered into prior to their revocation. Part 8 also makes amendments to primary and secondary legislation which are consequential upon the coming into force of these Regulations.

Part 9 of these Regulations sets out a review provision.

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect that these Regulations will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available from the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy and is also available alongside these Regulations on www.legislation.gov.uk. An Explanatory Memorandum and a transposition note are also available with these Regulations on www.legislation.gov.uk.
