(e) the shortening of the waiting period by the registration authority;
(f) the contents of the civil partnership document;
(g) completion of bilingual forms;
(h) the manner of completion of the civil partnership document;
(i) the information to be recorded in the civil partnership register;
(j) the creation of indexes of entries in the civil partnership register by the Registrar General and by registration authorities;
(k) access to civil partnership records;
(l) the time limit for the access regime to civil partnership records;
(m) the retention of documents relating to civil partnerships;
(n) duties of the civil partnership registrar and the authorised person; and
(o) corrections of errors in the civil partnership register by the Registrar General.

These Regulations have no impact on the costs of business, charities or voluntary bodies; neither does it have any significant financial impact on public bodies though there are set-up costs for the Registration Service in the region of £500,000. These costs were outlined in the full Regulatory Impact Assessment for the Civil Partnership Act 2004 which can be viewed at http://www.dti.gov.uk/access/ria/index.htm#equality.
