(4) The census officer's duty to deliver a pack under paragraph (3) will be satisfied in respect of each household and elector if the officer hands the pack to the householder, joint householder or, where no such person is available, if the officer—

- (a) leaves a pack with a responsible person who claims to act on behalf of that person; or
- (b) where no responsible person is available, leaves the pack at or sends it by post to the address in the enumeration record book or the address of which the officer was informed by the census co-ordinator.

(5) Where an appointee is satisfied, having spoken with a prescribed person for the purposes of articles 5(1) or (3) of the Census Order, that the prescribed person in question—

- (a) is incapable of completing and returning a questionnaire; and
- (b) is unable to authorise any person to act on their behalf, then the appointee may, in accordance with instructions issued by the Authority, make enquiries about the particulars which that prescribed person would be required by the Census Order to provide and record the answers to those enquiries which may be used for the purpose of the census.

(3) Each census co-ordinator must supply census officers appointed to act in their co-ordinator area with copies of the list created under paragraph (2) and instruct those census officers to make such enquiries as they think are reasonable of any person to obtain the particulars which the Census Order requires any prescribed person to provide.

Safe custody of questionnaires and documents

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the detailed arrangements necessary for the conduct in Wales of the census directed to be taken on the 27 March 2011 by the Census (England and Wales) Order 2009 (“the Census Order”). It also revokes the provisions of the Census Regulations 2000 (S.I.2000/1473) and the Census (Amendment) Regulations 2000 (S.I. 2000/3351) so far as they apply in relation Wales.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Regulation 4 provides for the division of Wales into census areas, co-ordinator areas and enumeration districts. It also provides for the appointment of persons to carry out the duties assigned to them under these Regulations.

Regulation 5 provides that a person required by the Census Order to make a return at the census will discharge their responsibility when the relevant questionnaire (available in English and Welsh), specified in Schedule 1 and which are set out in full in Schedules 2 to 4 to these Regulations, has been received by the UK Statistics Authority (“the Authority”). Regulations 6 to 12 provide detailed arrangements for the delivery, completion and return of the questionnaires.

Regulation 13 provides for follow-up action to be taken in the event that a questionnaire sent or delivered in accordance with these Regulations is not returned or is returned incomplete.

Regulations 14 and 15 make provision requiring information to be given to a prescribed person or a census officer. They also make provision to prevent the unauthorised use, publication and communication of information obtained for the purpose of the census and to ensure the safe custody of forms and documents.

Regulation 16 provides for the giving of either a statutory declaration or an undertaking concerning the confidentiality of information obtained as a result of the census by persons who will have access to that information.

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business, local government and the voluntary sector is annexed to the explanatory memorandum.
